Establishment
of Council

3. There is hereby established a Council for Labour, Economic and Social matters.

Composition
of Council

4.-(1) The Council shall consist of the following members to be appointed by the Minister in accordance with this section-

(a) Chairperson who shall not be-

(i) a member, official or office bearer of a trade union, employers association or federation; or

(ii) an employee in the public service of the Government of the United Republic;

(b) sixteen other members, comprising—

(i) the Permanent Secretary and three other members to represent the interests of the Government;

- (ii) four members to represent the interests of employers;
- (iii) four members to represent the interests of employees; and
- (iv) four members appointed because of their expertise in labour, economic, and social policy formulation.

(2) Prior to appointing a member of the Council, the Minister shall by notice in writing, invite nominations from-

- (a) registered trade unions and federations of trade unions, if the member is to represent employees; or
- (b) registered employers' associations and federations of employers' associations, if the member is to represent employers;
- (c) those members of the Council representing the interests of employers and employees in respect of the members contemplated in subsection (1)(b)(iv).

(3) With the approval of the Minister, the Council may co-opt other members to assist it in the performance of its functions, and such members shall not vote at meetings of the Council.

Function and powers of
Council

5.-(1) The function of the Council shall be-

- (a) to advise the Government through the Ministry on any of the following-
 - (i) measures to promote economic growth and social equity;
 - (ii) economic and social policy;
 - (iii) any significant changes to social and economic policy before it is submitted to cabinet;
 - (iv) the promotion of a co-ordinated policy on labour, economic and social matters;
- (b) to advise the Minister on—

- (i) national labour market policy;
- (ii) any proposed labour law before it is submitted to cabinet;
- (iii) the prevention and reduction of unemployment;
- (iv) any issue arising from the International Labour Organisation;
- (v) any issue raised by any international or regional association of states of which the United Republic of Tanzania is a member;
- (vi) codes of good practice;
- (vii) collection and compilation of information and statistics relating to the administration of the labour laws;
- (viii) any other labour matter referred to the Council by the Minister or the Council considers useful to achieve the objects of the labour laws;

(c) to ensure that employers and employees each nominate-

- (i) assessors for appointment of the panels of assessors referred to in section 53;
- (ii) individuals for appointment as members of the governing body of the Commission in terms of section 16;
- (iii) individuals for appointment as members of the Essential Services Committee in terms of section 29;

(d) to survey and analyse social and economic affairs;

(e) to keep abreast of international developments in social and economic policy;

(f) to evaluate the effectiveness of legislation and policy affecting social and economic policy;

(g) to work in close cooperation with different ministries, statutory bodies, programmes and other forums or non-governmental agencies engaged in the formulation and the implementation of labour, economic, and social policy;

(2) In the performance of its functions, the Council may conduct-

- (a) an investigation as it may consider necessary; or
- (b) research into labour, economic, and social policy.

(3) The Council may determine its own rules for the performance of its functions.

Tenure of office and terms and conditions of membership

6.-(1) A member of the Council-

- (a) shall be appointed for three years; and
- (b) may be re-appointed at the end of the term of office.

(2) A member of the Council shall be paid allowances for attending meetings, travel and subsistence at a rate to be determined by the Minister on the recommendations of the Permanent Secretary after consultation with the Permanent Secretary of the Office of Public Service Management.

Removal of members and filling of vacancies

7.-(1) The Minister shall remove a member from office if the member-

- (a) has resigned in writing and delivered the resignation to the Permanent Secretary;
- (b) no longer represents the interest in respect of which the member was appointed in terms of section 5 (1)(b)(i), (ii) or (iii):
Provided that, removal of a member on this ground shall be done only if requested by the constituency whose interests that member represents;
- (c) is guilty of serious misconduct relating to the performance of the member's functions;
- (d) is not able to perform the functions of a member (due to illness or any other reason);
- (e) is absent from three meetings of the Council without permission or good cause;

- (f) is declared bankrupt; or
- (g) is convicted of a criminal offence and sentenced to imprisonment without an option of a fine.

(2) Whenever a vacancy occurs on the Council, the Minister shall appoint a member to fill that vacancy for the unexpired term of office, and while making such an appointment shall comply with the provisions of section 4.

Committee of Council

8.-(1) The Council may, for the purpose of performing its functions-

- (a) establish committees to perform specific functions of the Council; and
- (b) subject to the approval of the Minister, assign any of its functions to a committee on conditions it may deem necessary to impose.

(2) A committee appointed by the Council-

- (a) shall be tripartite;
- (b) comprise at least three of its own members; and
- (c) may include any number of other committee members, but such members shall not vote in meetings of the committee if that committee has been assigned functions in terms of subsection (1)(b).

(3) Any function performed by a committee in terms of this section shall be deemed to be performed by the Council.

Meeting of Council

9.-(1) The Chairperson shall call-

- (a) at least three meetings of the Council in a calendar year;
- (b) meetings of the Council in accordance with its rules;
- (c) a special meeting of the Council
 - (i) at the written and motivated request of four members; or
 - (ii) at the request of the Minister.

(2) The Chairperson shall preside over all meetings of the Council at which the chairperson is present.

(3) If the Chairperson is not present, the members may elect a chairperson from among their number to chair the meeting.

(4) The majority of the members of the Council constitute a quorum provided that there is at least one member representing each of the following interests-

- (a) the government;
- (b) employers; and
- (c) employees.

(5) A decision of the majority of the members of the Council present at the meeting shall be the decision of the Council.

(6) In the case of a tied vote, the member presiding at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to that member's deliberative vote.

(7) The Council shall keep a written record of its meetings.

Administration
of Council

10.-(1) The Permanent Secretary-

- (a) shall provide members of staff in the Ministry available to be a Secretariat of the Council in the performance of its functions; and
- (b) may designate an officer in the Ministry to serve as a Secretary to the Council.

(2) The Council may contract with persons to assist it in the performance of its functions-

- (a) after consultation with the Permanent Secretary; and
- (b) with the approval of the Permanent Secretary as to the conditions of the contract.

Annual report
of Council

11. The Council shall submit an annual report of its activities in each calendar year to the Minister before 30 June of the next year.

PART III

- (b) shall not, in the performance of its functions, be subjected to the direction or control of any person or authority; and
- (c) shall be independent of any political party, trade union, employers' association, federation of trade unions or employers' associations.

(2) The Government, public authorities and other registered organisations and federations shall provide such assistance and cooperation as may be required to ensure the effectiveness of the provisions of subsection(1).

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of any written law relating to public departments shall apply to the Commission and the office of the Commission, and any office established under the Commission shall be a public office.

Functions of Commission

Act No.
24 of 2015
s.12

14.-(1) The functions of the Commission shall be to-

- (a) mediate any dispute referred to it in terms of any labour law;
- (b) determine any dispute referred to it by arbitration if-
 - (i) a labour law requires the dispute to be determined by arbitration;
 - (ii) the parties to the dispute agree to it being determined by arbitration;

Cap. 366

(iii) the Labour Court refers the dispute to the Commission to be determined by arbitration in terms of section 94(3)(a)(ii) of the Employment and Labour Relations Act.

(2) The Commission may offer to mediate a dispute that has not been referred to it.

Powers of Commission

15.-(1) In the performance of its functions, the Commission may-

- (a) appoint a director, mediators and arbitrators;
- (b) assign mediators and arbitrators to mediate and arbitrate disputes in accordance with the provisions of any labour law;
- (c) establish offices in areas and at administrative levels as it may determine;
- (d) establish divisions of the Commission and assign particular responsibilities to them;
- (e) make rules to regulate-
 - (i) its internal administration;
 - (ii) the practice and procedure for mediating disputes;
 - (iii) the practice and procedure for arbitrating disputes;
 - (iv) the practice and procedure of the essential services committee;
- (f) publish guidelines; or
- (g) publish a code of ethics for mediators and arbitrators.

(2) The Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette, publish any rules or guidelines prescribed in subsection (1)(e) and (f).

Composition
of Commission

16.-(1) The Commission shall consist of-

- (a) a chairperson, who shall not be-
 - (i) a member, official or office bearer of a trade union, employers association or federation; or

(ii) an employee in the public service;
(b) six other Commissioners.

(2) The Chairperson shall be appointed from among persons who have knowledge, experience and a considerable degree of involvement in labour matters.

(3) The President shall appoint-

- (a) the Chairperson, from a list of three persons recommended by the Council;
- (b) two Commissioners proposed by members of the Council representing the interests of employees;
- (c) two Commissioners proposed by members of the Council representing the interests of employers;
- (d) two Commissioners to represent the Government.

(4) The appointment referred to in subsection (3) shall be made on the recommendation of the Minister after the Minister has consulted with the Council.

Tenure and conditions of service of

17.-(1) A Commissioner shall hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment at the end of the term of office.

(2) The office of Commissioner shall not be a full time office and a Commissioner shall not be paid a salary but shall be paid allowances for attending meetings, travel and subsistence at a rate determined by the Minister on the recommendation of the Permanent Secretary after consultation with the Permanent Secretary of the Office of Public Service Management.

(3) The office of a Commissioner shall become vacant if the Commissioner-

- (a) resigns;
- (b) is removed from office in terms of subsection (4).

(4) The President, on the recommendations of the Minister, shall remove a Commissioner from office if the Commissioner-

- (a) no longer represents the interest in respect of which the member was appointed in terms of section 16(3):
Provided that, removal of a Commissioner on this ground shall be done only if requested by the constituency whose interests that Commissioner represents;
- (b) is guilty of serious misconduct relating to the performance of the Commissioner's functions;
- (c) is not able to perform the functions of a Commissioner (due to illness or any other reason);
- (d) is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Commission without permission or good cause;
- (e) is declared bankrupt; or
- (f) is convicted of a criminal offence and sentenced to imprisonment without an option of a fine.

(5) The Minister shall consult with the Council before making a recommendation to the President to remove a Commissioner from office.

(6) Whenever an office of a Commissioner becomes vacant, the President shall appoint a Commissioner to fill that vacancy for the unexpired term of office and while making such an appointment, he shall comply with the provisions of section 16(3).

Director of Commission

18.-(1) There shall be appointed a Director and a Deputy Director of the Commission.

(2) The Commission, after consultation with the Minister, shall appoint a Director and a Deputy Director from among persons who are knowledgeable, skilled and experienced in labour relations and dispute prevention and resolution.

(3) The Director shall be the chief executive of the Commission and subject to the general directions and control of the Commission-

- (a) be responsible for carrying out the policy decisions of the Commission and the day to day administration and management of the affairs of the Commission;

- (b) perform the functions that are conferred on the Director by any labour law or delegated to the Director by the Commission;
- (c) may mediate and arbitrate disputes referred to the Commission under the Employment and Labour Relations Act.

(4) The Director shall, unless in any particular case the Commission otherwise directs in writing, attend all meetings of the Commission but shall have no vote.

(5) The Director, in consultation with the Commission, may delegate any of his functions or the function of the Commission to any mediator, arbitrator or member of staff.

(6) Notwithstanding any provisions in this Act, the Director may refer any dispute referred to the Commission to the Labour Court for its decision if it is in the public interest to do so.

Mediators and arbitrators

19.-(1) The Commission shall appoint as many mediators and arbitrators as it considers necessary to perform the functions of the Commission.

(2) The Commission may appoint mediators and arbitrators on either a full-time or part-time basis and on terms and conditions determined by it, in consultation with the Office of the Public Service Management.

(3) When appointing a mediator or arbitrator, the Commission shall have due regard to the need to constitute an independent and professional Commission.

(4) The Commission shall prepare a code of conduct for mediators and arbitrators and ensure that they comply with the code of conduct in performing their functions.

(5) The Commission shall be responsible for the control and discipline of mediators and arbitrators provided that the control or discipline does not amount to interference with the independence of the mediator or arbitrator in any dispute.

(6) The Commission may remove a mediator or arbitrator from office only for-

- (a) serious misconduct relating to the functions of a mediator or arbitrator;

- (b) incapacity relating to the functions of a mediator or arbitrator; or
- (c) a material violation of the code of conduct referred to in subsection (4).

Cap. 366

(7) Nothing in this Act or the Employment Labour Relations Act precludes-

- (a) a person being appointed as both a mediator and an arbitrator under this section;
- (b) such a person from being assigned to perform both capacities in respect of a dispute.

(8) An assignment of a person in terms of subsection (7)(b) shall only take place where there are published rules and guidelines regulating the performance of such persons.

Powers of mediators and arbitrators
Act No.
8 of 2006
Sch.

20.-(1) Mediators and arbitrators appointed in terms of this Act may-

- (a) summon any person for questioning or to attend a mediation or arbitration hearing if the mediator or arbitrator considers that, that person's attendance shall assist in the resolution of the dispute;
- (b) summon any person who is believed to have possession or control of any book, document or object relevant to the resolution of the dispute, to appear before the mediator or arbitrator to be questioned and to produce the book, document or object;
- (c) administer an oath or accept an affirmation from any person called to give evidence; and
- (d) question any person about any matter relevant to the dispute.

(2) Witness fees to a person who appears before a mediator or arbitrator in response to a summons issued in terms of this section shall be borne out by a party who calls that witness.

(3) Where a witness is summoned by the Commission on its own motion, the cost for that witness shall be borne out by the Director of the Commission.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), in a fitting case, the Commission may order the cost for the witness to be paid by the Director of the Commission.

(5) Any person, who does or omits to do any of the acts provided for in paragraphs (a) to (i) of this subsection, commits contempt of the Commission-

- (a) if, after having been summoned to appear before a mediator or arbitrator, the person, without good cause, fails to appear at the place, date and time stated in the summons;
- (b) if, after having appeared in response to a summons, the person fails to remain in attendance until excused by the mediator or arbitrator;
- (c) by refusing to take the oath or to make an affirmation as a witness when a mediator or arbitrator so requires;
- (d) by refusing to answer any question fully or to the best of that person's knowledge and belief subject to any law entitling that person to refuse to do so;
- (e) if the person, without good cause, fails to produce any book, document or object specified in the summons;
- (f) if the person wilfully hinders a mediator or arbitrator in performing any function conferred by or in terms of any labour law;
- (g) if the person insults, disparages or belittles a mediator or arbitrator, or prejudices or improperly influences proceedings or improperly anticipates a mediator's or arbitrator's decision;
- (h) by wilfully interrupting the mediation or arbitration proceedings or misbehaving in any other manner during those proceedings;
- (i) by doing anything else in relation to the Commission which, if done in relation to a court of law, would have been contempt of court.

Oaths

21. A Commissioner, the Director, mediator and arbitrator shall, before entering upon the duties of office, take and subscribe to an oath for the due performance of the functions of office as set out in the Schedule to this Act.

Staff of Commission

22.-(1) The Director may appoint staff after consulting the Commission.

(2) The Commission, in consultation with the Office of the Public Service Management, shall determine the remuneration of staff members.

(3) The Director shall be responsible for the control and discipline of the staff.

Finances of Commission

23.-(1) The funds and resources of the Commission shall consist of-

- (a) moneys appropriated by Parliament;
- (b) donations, grants or bequests as the Commission may from time to time receive without compromising the independence of the Commission;
- (c) such other moneys or property accruing to the Commission-
 - (i) under any written law; or
 - (ii) in any other manner in the performance of its functions.

(2) The Commission shall be responsible to the National Assembly in accounting for its revenue and expenditure.

(3) The financial year of the Commission begins on first July in each year and ends on thirtieth June of the next year.

(4) In each financial year, at a time determined by the Minister, the Commission shall submit to the Minister a detailed annual budget for the next financial year including the Commission's estimated income and expenditure and the requested appropriation from Parliament.

(5) In preparing its estimates under subsection (4), the Commission shall have regard to the advice of the Minister and the Minister responsible for finance.

(6) The Minister shall, upon receipt of an annual budget, table the budget before the National Assembly.

Accounts and audits

Cap. 348

24.-(1) The Commission shall-

- (a) keep proper books of accounts and records of its income, expenditure, assets and liabilities;
- (b) take all reasonable measures to ensure that the resources of the Commission are safeguarded and utilized in the most economic, efficient and effective manner;
- (c) prepare appropriation accounts in accordance with the Public Finance Act;
- (d) prepare annual accounts in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice in respect of all its transactions.

(2) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited by the Controller and Auditor General in respect of each financial year.

(3) After the audit, the Controller and the Auditor General shall certify the accounts of the Commission and submit the report to the Commission.

Power to contract

25.-(1) The Commission may contract with any person to-

- (a) do work for the Commission;
- (b) perform any function on behalf of the Commission.

(2) Any person with whom the Commission contracts shall be bound by the requirements of independence that binds the Commission under section 13.

Delegation of Commission's powers

26.-(1) The Commission may delegate in writing any of its functions, other than the functions prescribed below, to any member of the Commission, the Director, a committee of the Commission, and a mediator or arbitrator appointed in terms of section 19, and the functions that the Commission shall not delegate are-

- (a) appointing the Director;

- (b) appointing mediators and arbitrators under section 19;
- (c) approving the annual or supplementary budget for submission to the Minister in terms of section 23.

(2) The Commission may attach conditions to a delegation and may amend or revoke a delegation at any time.

(3) The Commission may vary or set aside any decision made by a person acting in terms of a delegation made in terms of subsection (1).

Limitation of liability and limitation of disclosure

27.-(1) The Commission shall be liable for any loss suffered by any person as a result of any act performed or omitted in good faith in the course of exercising the functions of the Commission.

(2) The Commission may not disclose to any person, or in any court, any information or document acquired on a confidential basis or without prejudice in the course of mediation.

(3) In this section, “Commission” includes the Commission, a Commissioner and any person employed, appointed or contracted by the Commission.

Annual report of Commission

28.-(1) Within six months after the end of the financial year, the Commission shall prepare and submit to the National Assembly, through the Minister, an annual report in respect of that year containing-

- (a) a copy of the audited accounts of the Commission;
- (b) the auditor’s report on those accounts;
- (c) a report on the operations of the Commission; and
- (d) any other information that the Minister may require.

(2) The Minister shall table the report with the National Assembly as soon as reasonably practicable.
