PART II

PROCEEDINGS FROM ACT OF BANKRUPTCY TO DISCHARGE ACT OF BANKRUPTCY

Acts of bankruptcy

- 3.-(1) A debtor commits an act of bankruptcy where-
- (a) in Tanzania or elsewhere he makes a conveyance or assignment of his property to a trustee or trustees for the benefit of his creditors generally;
 - (b) in Tanzania or elsewhere he makes a fraudulent conveyance, gift, delivery, or transfer of his property, or of any part thereof;
 - (c) in Tanzania or elsewhere he makes any conveyance or transfer of his property, or any part thereof, or creates any charge thereon which would under this or any other Act be void as a fraudulent preference if he were adjudged bankrupt;
 - (d) with intent to defeat or delay his creditors, he does any of the following things, namely, departs out of Tanzania, or being out of Tanzania remains out of Mainland Tanzania, or departs from his dwelling-house, or otherwise absents himself, or begins to keep house;
 - (e) execution against him has been levied by seizure of his goods in civil proceedings in any court, and the goods have been either sold or held by the bailiff for twenty-one days, and that, where an interpleader summons has been taken out in regard to the goods seized, the time elapsing between the date at which the summons is taken out and the date at which the proceedings on the summons are finally disposed of, settled, or abandoned, shall not be taken into account in calculating the period of twenty-one days;
 - (f) he files in the court a declaration of his inability to pay his debts or presents a bankruptcy petition against himself;
 - (g) a creditor has obtained a final judgment or final order against him for any amount, and, execution thereon not having been stayed, has served on him in Tanzania, or, by leave of the court, elsewhere, a bankruptcy notice under this Act, and he does not within seven days after service of the notice, in case the service is effected in, and in case the service is effected elsewhere, then within the time limited in that behalf by the order giving leave to effect the service, either comply with the requirements of the notice or satisfy the court that, he has a counter-claim, set-off or cross-demand which equals or exceeds the amount of the judgment debt or sum ordered to be paid, and which he could not set up in the action in which the judgment was obtained, or the proceedings in which the order was obtained; or

(h) a debtor gives notice to any of his creditors that, he has suspended, or is about to suspend payment of his debts.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (g) and section 4 of this Act, a person who is entitled to enforce a final judgment or final order, shall be deemed to be a creditor who has obtained a final judgment or final order;

(3) In this Act, the expression “a debtor” unless the context implies otherwise, includes a person, whether domiciled in Tanzania or not, who at the time when any act of bankruptcy was done or suffered by him-

(a) was personally present in Tanzania;

(b) ordinarily resided or had a place of residence in Tanzania;

(c) was carrying on business in Tanzania, personally, or by means of an agent or manager; or

(d) was a member of a firm or partnership which carried on business in Tanzania, and for the purposes of Part IX hereof includes a person against whom bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in a reciprocating country and who has property in Tanzania.

Bankruptcy
notice

4. A bankruptcy notice shall be in the prescribed form, and require the debtor to pay the judgment debt or sum ordered to be paid in accordance with the terms of judgment or order, or to secure or compound for it to the satisfaction of the creditor or the court, and state the consequences of non-compliance with the notice, and served in the prescribed manner:

Provided that, a bankruptcy notice-

- (a) may specify an agent to act on behalf of the creditor in respect of any payment or other thing required by the notice to be made or done to the satisfaction of the creditor; and
- (b) shall not be invalidated by reason that, the sum specified in the notice as the amount due exceeds the amount actually due, unless the debtor within the time allowed for payment gives notice to the creditor that, he disputes the validity of the notice on the ground of the misstatement; but, where the debtor does not give the notice, he shall be deemed to have complied with the bankruptcy notice, where within the time allowed he take steps as would have constituted a compliance with the notice had the actual amount due been correctly specified therein.

(a) Receiving Order

Jurisdiction to make receiving order

5. Subject to the conditions hereinafter specified, where a debtor commits an act of bankruptcy the court may, on a bankruptcy petition being presented either by a creditor or by the debtor, make an order in this Act called a receiving order, for the protection of the estate.

Conditions on which creditor may petition

6.-(1) A creditor shall not be entitled to present a bankruptcy against a debtor unless-

- (a) the debt owing by the debtor to the petitioning creditor, or, where two or more creditors join in the petition, the aggregate amount of debts owing to the several petitioning creditors amounts to one thousand shillings;
- (b) the debt is a liquidated sum payable either immediately or at some certain future time;
- (c) the act of bankruptcy on which the petition is grounded has occurred within three months before presentation of the petition; and

- (d) the debtor is domiciled in Tanzania, or within a year before the date of the presentation of the petition has ordinarily resided or had resided, or had a dwelling house or place of business or has carried on business in Tanzania, personally or by means of an agent or manager, or is or within the said period has been a member of a firm or partnership of persons which has carried on business in Tanzania, by means of a partner or partners, or an agent or manager, nor, where a deed of arrangement has been executed, shall a creditor be entitled to present a bankruptcy petition founded on the execution of the deed, or on any other act committed by the debtor in the course of, or for the purpose of the proceedings preliminary to execution of the deed, in cases where he is prohibited from so doing by any law for the time being in force relating to deeds of arrangement.

(2) Where the petitioning creditor is a secured creditor, he must in his petition either state that he is willing to give up his security for the benefit of the creditors in the event of the debtor being adjudged bankrupt, or give an estimate of the value of his security, and in the latter case, he may be admitted as a petitioning creditor to the extent of the balance of the debt due to him, after deducting the value estimated in the same manner as if he were an unsecured creditor.

Proceedings and order on creditor's petition

7.-(1) A creditor's petition shall be verified by affidavit of the creditor, or some person on his behalf having knowledge of the facts and served in the prescribed manner.

(2) The court at the hearing shall require proof of the debt of the petitioning creditor of the service of the petition and the act of bankruptcy, or, where more than one act of bankruptcy is alleged in the petition of some one of the alleged acts of bankruptcy and, where satisfied with proof, may make a receiving order in pursuance of the petition.

(3) Where the court is not satisfied with the proof of the petitioning creditor's debt, or the act of bankruptcy, or the service of the petition, or is satisfied by the debtor that he is able to pay his debts, or for another sufficient cause no order ought to be made, the court may dismiss the petition.

(4) When the act of bankruptcy relied on is non-compliance with a bankruptcy notice to pay, secure, or compound for a judgment debt, or sum ordered to be paid, the court may, if it thinks fit, stay or dismiss the petition on the ground that, an appeal is pending from the judgment or order.

(5) Where the debtor appears on the petition, and denies that, he is indebted to the petitioner, or he is indebted to an amount as would justify the petitioner in presenting a petition against him, the court on the security (if any) being given as the court may require for payment to the petitioner of any debt which may be established against him in due course of law, and the costs of establishing the debt, may, instead of dismissing the petition, stay proceedings on the petition for the time as may be required for trial of the question relating to the debt.

(6) Where proceedings are stayed, the court may, where by reason of the delay caused by the stay of proceedings or for any other cause it thinks just, make a receiving order on the petition of some other creditor, and shall thereupon dismiss, on the terms as it thinks just, the petition in which proceedings have been stayed as aforesaid.

(7) A creditor's petition after presentment shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the court.

Debtor's petition and order thereon
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 3
20 of 1958 s. 2

8.—(1) A debtor's petition shall allege that, the debtor is unable to pay his debts, and the presentation thereof shall be deemed an act of bankruptcy without the previous filing by the debtor of a declaration of inability to pay his debts, and the court shall there-upon make a receiving order:

Provided however that, the order shall be refused unless the debtor have filed with the official receiver his statement of affairs prepared in accordance with the provisions of section 16 of this Act.

(2) A debtor's petition after presentation shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the court.

Effect of receiving order 9.—(1) On the making of a receiving order, the official receiver shall be constituted receiver of the property of the debtor, and except as directed by this Act, a creditor to whom the debtor is indebted in respect of debt provable in bankruptcy shall not have any remedy against the property or person of the debtor in respect of the debt, or commence any action or other legal proceedings, unless with the leave of the court and on the terms as the court may impose.

(2) This section shall not effect the power of any secured creditor to realise or otherwise deal with his security in the same manner as he would have been entitled to realise or deal with it if this section had not been passed.

Power to appoint interim receiver 10. The court may, where it is shown to be necessary for the protection of the estate, at any time after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition, and before a receiving order is made, appoint the official receiver to be interim receiver of the property of the debtor, or of any part thereof, and direct him to take immediate possession thereof or of any part thereof.

Power to stay pending proceedings 11.—(1) The court may, at any time after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition, stay any action, execution proceedings or other legal process against the property or person of the debtor, and any court in which are pending against a debtor may, on proof that a bankruptcy petition has been presented by or against the debtor, either stay the proceedings or allow them to continue on the terms as it may think just.

(2) Where the court makes an order staying any action or proceedings, or staying proceedings generally, the order may be served by sending a copy thereof under the seal of the court by post to the address for service of the plaintiff or other party prosecuting the proceeding.

Power to appoint special manager 12.—(1) The official receiver of a debtor's estate may, on the application of a creditor or creditors, and where satisfied that, the nature of the debtor's estate or business or the interests of the creditors generally require the appointment of a special manager of the estate or business other than the official receiver, appoint a manager thereof accordingly to act until a trustee is appointed, and with the powers (including any of the powers of a receiver) as may be entrusted to him by the official receiver.

(2) The special manager shall give security and account in a manner as the official receiver may direct.

(3) The special manager shall receive the remuneration as the creditors may, by resolution at an ordinary meeting, determine or, in default of any resolution, as may be prescribed.

Advertisement of receiving order
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 4

13. Notice of receiving order, stating the name, residential and business addresses and description of the debtor, the date of the order, the court by which the order is made and the date of the petition, shall be gazetted in the prescribed manner.

(b) Proceedings Consequent on Order

First meeting of creditors

14. As soon as may be after the making of a receiving order against a debtor a general meeting of his creditors (in this Act referred to as the first meeting of creditors) shall be held for the purpose of considering whether a proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement shall be accepted, or whether it is expedient that, the debtor shall be adjudged bankrupt, and generally as to the mode of dealing with the debtors properly.

Meetings to be governed by rules

15. With respect to the summoning of and proceedings at the first and other meetings of creditors, the rules in the First Schedule shall be observed.

Debtor's statement of affairs
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1943 s. 5
20 of 1958 s. 3

16.—(1) The debtor shall make out and submit to the official receiver a statement of and in relation to his affairs in the prescribed form, verified by affidavit, and showing the particulars of the debtor's assets, debts and liabilities, the names, residences and occupations of his creditors, the securities held by them respectively, the dates when the securities were respectively given, and other information as may be prescribed or as the official receiver may require.

(2) The statement shall be submitted-

- (a) prior to, but not more than three days before the date of the presentation of the debtor's petition, and, upon submission, the official receiver shall certify to the court under his hand that the statement has been duly submitted to him; and
- (b) within fourteen days of the date of the receiving order made on the petition of a creditor, but the official receiver may, for special reasons, extend the time.

(3) In the case of a creditor's petition, where the debtor fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirements of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence and the court may, on the application of the official receiver, or of any creditor, adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and the debtor shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable, be guilty of a contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

(4) A person stating himself in writing to be a creditor of the bankrupt may personally or by agent inspect the statement at reasonable times, and take any copy thereof or extract therefrom, but a person untruthfully stating himself to be a creditor shall be guilty of a contempt of court, and punishable accordingly on the application of the trustee or official receiver.

(c) Public Examination of the Debtor

Public examination of debtor
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 7

17.-(1) Where the court makes a receiving order, it shall, save as in this Act provided, hold a public sitting on a day to be appointed by the court, for the examination of the debtor, and the debtor shall attend thereat, and be examined as to his conduct, dealings, and property.

(2) The examination shall be held as soon as conveniently may be after the expiration of the time for the submission of the debtor's statement of affairs.

(3) The court may adjourn the examination from time to time.

(4) A creditor who has tendered a proof, or his representative authorised in writing, may question the debtor concerning his affairs and the causes of his failure.

(5) The official receiver shall take part in the examination of the debtor, and for that purpose may employ an advocate where he so desires.

(6) Where a trustee is appointed before the conclusion of the examination, he may take part therein.

(7) The court may put questions to the debtor as it may think expedient.

(8) The debtor shall be examined upon oath, and be his duty to answer questions as the court may put or allow to be put to him, and notes of the examination as the court thinks proper shall be taken down in writing, and be read over either to or by the debtor and signed by him, and may thereafter, save as in this Act provided, be used in evidence against him and they shall also be open to the inspection of any creditor at reasonable times.

(9) Where the debtor refuses to answer or does not answer to the satisfaction of the court any question the court may put or allow to be put, the debtor shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

(10) When the court is of opinion that, the affairs of the debtor have been sufficiently investigated, it shall by order declare that, his examination is concluded, but the order shall not be made until after the day appointed for the first meeting of creditors.

(11) Where the debtor is a lunatic or suffers from any mental or physical affliction or disability as in the opinion of the court makes him unfit to attend his public examination, the court may make an order dispensing with examination or directing that, the debtor be examined on terms, in a manner and at a place as to the court seems expedient.

(d) Composition or Scheme of Arrangement

18.—(1) Where a debtor intends to make a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of his debts, or a proposal for a scheme of arrangement of his affairs, he shall, within four days of submitting his statement of affairs, or within the time thereafter as the official receiver may fix, lodge with the official receiver a proposal in writing signed by him, embodying the

Compositions and schemes of

terms of the composition or scheme which he is desirous of submitting for the consideration of his creditors, and setting out particulars of any sureties or securities proposed.

(2) The official receiver shall hold a meeting of creditors before the public examination of the debtor is concluded, and send to each creditor before the meeting a copy of the debtor's proposal with a report thereon; and where at that meeting a majority in number and three fourths in value of the creditors have proved and resolved to accept the proposal, it shall be deemed to be duly accepted by the creditors and when approved by the court shall be binding on the creditors.

(3) The debtor may at the meeting amend the terms of his proposal, where the amendment is, in the opinion of the official receiver, calculated to benefit the general body of creditors.

(4) A creditor who has proved his debt may assent to or dissent from the proposal by a letter in the prescribed form, addressed to the official receiver, so as to be received by him not later than the day preceding the meeting, and any assent or dissent shall have effect as if the creditor had been present and had voted at the meeting.

(5) The debtor or the official receiver may, after the proposal is accepted by the creditors, apply to the court to approve it, and notice of the time appointed for hearing, the application shall be given to each creditor who has proved.

(6) The application shall not be heard until after the conclusion of the public examination of the debtor, and a creditor who has proved, may be heard by the court in opposition to the application, notwithstanding that he may at a meeting of creditors have voted for the acceptance of the proposal.

(7) For the purpose of approving a composition or scheme by joint debtors, the court may, where it thinks fit, and on the report of the official receiver that it is expedient so to do, dispense with the public examination of one of the joint debtors where he is unavoidably prevented from attending the examination by illness or absence from Tanzania.

(8) The court shall, before approving the proposal, hear a report of the official receiver as to the terms thereof, and as to the conduct of the debtor, and any objections which may be made by or on behalf of any creditor.

(9) Where the court is of opinion that, the terms of the proposal are not reasonable, or are not calculated to benefit the general body of creditors, the court shall refuse to approve the proposal.

(10) Where facts are proved on proof of which the court would be required either to refuse, suspend or attach conditions to the debtor's discharge, were he adjudged bankrupt, the court shall refuse to approve the proposal, unless it provides reasonable security for the payment of not less than five shillings in the pound on the unsecured debts provable against the debtor's estate.

(11) In other case the court may either approve or refuse to approve the proposal.

(12) Where the court approves the proposal, the approval may be testified by the seal of the court being attached to the instrument containing the terms of the proposed composition or scheme, or by the terms being embodied in an order of the court.

(13) A composition or scheme accepted and approved in pursuance of this section shall be binding on the creditors so far as relates to any debts due to them from the debtor or provable in bankruptcy, but shall not release the debtor from any liability under a judgment against him in an action for seduction or affiliation, or under a judgment against him as a co-respondent in a matrimonial cause, except to the extent and under the conditions as the court expressly orders in respect of liability.

(14) A certificate of the official receiver that a composition or scheme has been duly accepted and approved shall, in the absence of fraud, be conclusive as to its validity.

(15) The provisions of a composition or scheme under this section may be enforced by the court on application by a person interested, and any disobedience of an order of the court made on the application shall be deemed a contempt of court.

(16) Where default is made in payment of an instalment due in pursuance of the composition or scheme, or where it appears to the court, on satisfactory evidence that, the composition or scheme cannot, in consequence of legal difficulties, or for any sufficient cause, proceed without injustice or undue delay to the creditors or to the debtor, or that the approval of the court was obtained by fraud, the court may, where it thinks fit, on application by the official receiver or the trustee or by any creditor, adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and annul the composition or scheme, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition or payment duly made or thing duly done, under or in pursuance of the composition or scheme, and where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt under this subsection, any debt provable in other respects which has been contracted before the adjudication, shall be provable in the bankruptcy.

(17) Where under or in pursuance of a composition or scheme, a trustee is appointed to administer the debtor's property or manage his business or to distribute the composition, section 28 and Part V of this Act shall apply as if the Trustee were a trustee in a bankruptcy, and as if the terms, "bankruptcy," "bankrupt," and "order of adjudication" include respectively a composition or scheme of arrangement, a compounding or arranging debtor, and an order approving the composition or scheme.

(18) Part III of this Act shall, so far as the nature of the case and the terms of the composition or scheme admit, apply thereto, the same interpretation being given to the words "trustee," "bankruptcy," "bankrupt," and "order of adjudication" as in the last preceding subsection.

(19) A composition or scheme shall not be approved by the court which does not provide for the payment in priority to other debts of debts directed to be paid in the distribution of the property of a bankrupt.

(20) The acceptance by a creditor of a composition or scheme shall not release any person who under this Act would not be released by an order of discharge where the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt.

Effect of composition or scheme

19. Notwithstanding the acceptance and approval of a composition or scheme, the composition or scheme shall not be binding on any creditor so far as regards a debt or liability from which, under the provisions of this Act, the debtor would not be released by an order of discharge in bankruptcy, unless the creditor assents to the composition or scheme.

(e) Adjudication of Bankruptcy

Adjudication of bankruptcy where composition not accepted or approved
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 6
20 of 1958 s. 5

20.—(1) Where a receiving order is made against a debtor, then, where the creditors at the first meeting, or any adjournment thereof by ordinary resolution, resolve that, the debtor be adjudged bankrupt, or pass no resolution, or where the creditors do not meet, or where a composition or scheme is not approved in pursuance of this Act within fourteen days after the conclusion of the examination of the debtor, or a further time as the court may allow or where the debtor himself with the concurrence of the official receiver shall consent in writing to be adjudged bankrupt, the court shall adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and thereupon the property of the bankrupt shall become divisible among his creditors, and vest in a trustee.

(2) Notice of order adjudging a debtor bankrupt, stating the name, residential and business addresses and description of the bankrupt, and the date of the adjudication, shall be gazetted in the prescribed manner, and the date of the order shall, for the purposes of this Act, be the date of the adjudication.

Appointment of trustee
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 7
20 of 1958 s. 6

21.—(1) Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt, or the creditors have resolved that, he be adjudged bankrupt, the creditors may by ordinary resolution appoint some fit person, whether a creditor or not, to fill the office of trustee of the property of the bankrupt; or they may resolve to leave his appointment to the committee of inspection hereinafter mentioned.

(2) A person shall be deemed not fit to act as trustee of the property of a bankrupt where he has been previously removed from the office of trustee of a bankrupt's property for misconduct or neglect of duty.

(3) The person appointed (other than the official receiver) shall give security in a manner prescribed to the satisfaction of the court, and the court, where satisfied with the security, shall certify that, his appointment has been duly made, unless the court objects to the appointment on the ground that, it has not been made in good faith by a majority in value of the creditors voting, or the person appointed is not fit to act as trustee, or his connection with or relation to the bankrupt, or his estate or any particular creditor makes it difficult for him to act with impartiality in the interests of the creditors generally.

(4) The official receiver may be appointed the trustee by the creditors, and, in that case, there shall be no committee of inspection unless he shall desires, and, where there is no committee of inspection, the official receiver may do things which may be done by a trustee with the permission of a committee of inspection.

(5) Where the official receiver is appointed, and where the Court is satisfied that, his appointment has been duly made, shall certify the appointment accordingly.

(6) The appointment of a trustee shall take effect when certified by the court in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3) or subsection (5) of this section.

(7) Where a trustee is not appointed by the creditors within four weeks from the date of the adjudication, or in the event of there being negotiations for a composition or scheme pending at the expiration of those four weeks, then within seven days from the close of those negotiations by the refusal of the creditors to accept or of the court to approve, the composition or scheme, the official receiver shall report the matter to the court, and thereupon the court shall appoint some fit person to be trustee of the bankrupt's property, and certify the appointment:

Provided that, the creditors or the committee of inspection (if authorised by resolution of the creditors) may, at any subsequent time, if they think fit, appoint a trustee, and, on the appointment being made and certified, the person appointed shall become trustee in the place of the person appointed by the court.

(8) When a debtor is adjudged bankrupt after the first meeting of creditors has been held, and a trustee has not been appointed prior to the adjudication, the official receiver shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors for the purpose of appointing a trustee.

Committee of inspection and procedure of committee
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 8
20 of 1958 s. 7

22.—(1) The creditors qualified to vote may, at their first or any subsequent meeting by resolution, appoint a committee of inspection for the purpose of superintending the administration of the bankrupts property by the trustee:

Provided that, where the official receiver has been appointed as a trustee by the creditors, the appointment of a committee of inspection shall only be made where the official receiver have previously consented thereto.

(2) The committee of inspection shall consist of not more than five but not less than three persons, possessing one or any of the following qualifications—

- (a) being a creditor or the holder of a general proxy or general power of attorney from a creditor, provided that creditor and a holder of a general proxy or general power of attorney from a creditor shall not be qualified to act as a member of the committee of inspection until the creditor has provided his debt and the proof has been admitted; or
- (b) being a person to whom a creditor intends to give a general proxy or general power of attorney:

Provided that, a person shall not be qualified to act as a member of the committee of inspection until he holds a proxy or power of attorney, and until the creditor has proved his debt and the proof has been admitted.

(3) The committee of inspection shall meet at the times as they shall appoint, and, failing the appointment, at least once a month; and the trustee or any member of the committee may also call a meeting of the committee when he thinks necessary.

(4) The committee may act by a majority of their members present at a meeting, but shall not act unless a majority of the committee are present at the meeting.

(5) A member of the committee may resign his office by notice in writing signed by him, and delivered to the trustee.

(6) Where a member of the committee becomes bankrupt or compounds or arranges with his creditors, or is absent from five consecutive meetings of the committee, his office shall thereupon become vacant.

(7) A member of the committee may be removed by an ordinary resolution at any meeting of creditors of which seven days' notice has been given stating the object of the meeting.

(8) On a vacancy occurring in the office of a member of the committee, the trustee shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors for the purpose of filling the vacancy, and the meeting may by resolution appoint another creditor, or other person eligible as above, to fill the vacancy.

(9) The continuing members of the committee, provided that, there are not less than two continuing members, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body; and, where the number of members of the committee of inspection is for the time being less than five, the creditors may increase that number so that it does not exceed five.

(10) Where there are no committee of inspection, any act or thing or any direction or permission by this Act, authorised or required to be done or given by the committee, may be done or given by the court or the official receiver on the application of the trustee.

Power to accept composition or scheme after bankruptcy adjudication

23.—(1) Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt, the creditors may, where they think fit at any time after the adjudication, by a majority in number and three-fourths in value of the creditors who have proved, resolve to accept a proposal for a composition in satisfaction of the debts due to them under the bankruptcy, or for a scheme of arrangement of the bankrupt's affairs; and thereupon the same proceedings shall be taken and the same consequences ensue as in the case of a composition or scheme accepted before adjudication.

(2) Where the court approves the composition or scheme, it may make an order annulling the bankruptcy and vesting the property of the bankrupt in him or in other person as the court may appoint, on terms, and subject to conditions, if any, as the court may declare.

(3) Where default is made in payment of any instalment due in pursuance of the composition or scheme or where it appears to the court that the composition or scheme cannot proceed without injustice or undue delay, or that the approval of the court was obtained by fraud, the Court may, where it thinks fit, on application by a person interested, adjudge the debtor bankrupt, and annul the composition or scheme, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition or payment duly made, or thing duly done, under or in pursuance of the composition or scheme, and where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt under this subsection, debts provable in other respects, which have been contracted before the date of the adjudication, shall be provable in the bankruptcy.

(f) Control Over Person and Property of Debtor

Duties of debtors
as to discovery and realisation of property

24.—(1) A debtor against whom a receiving order is made, unless prevented by sickness or other sufficient cause shall attend the first meeting of his creditors, and submit to examination and give information as the meeting may require.

(2) The debtor shall give the inventory of his property, the list of his creditors and debtors, and of the debts due to and from them respectively, submit to the examination in respect of his property or his creditors, attend other meetings of his creditors, wait at the times on the official receiver, special manager, or trustee, execute the powers of attorney, conveyances, deeds, and instruments and generally do the acts and things in relation to his property and the distribution of the proceeds amongst his creditors, as may be reasonably required by the official receiver, special manager or trustee, or may be prescribed by general rules, or directed by the court by any special order or orders made in reference to any particular case, or made on the occasion of any special application by the official receiver, special manager, trustee or any creditor or person interested.

(3) The debtor shall, where adjudged bankrupt, aid, to the utmost of his power, in the realisation of his property and the distribution of the proceeds among his creditors.

(4) Where a debtor wilfully fails to perform the duties imposed on him by this section, or deliver up possession of any part of his property which is divisible amongst his creditors under this Act, and for the time being is in his possession or under his control, to the official receiver or the trustee, or a person authorised by the court to take possession of it, he shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be subject, be guilty of a contempt of court, and may be punished accordingly.

Address and particulars of employment to be furnished
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 9
20 of 1958 s. 8

25.—(1) A debtor against whom an order of adjudication is made in Tanzania shall, so long as the order remains in force, keep the official receiver or the trustee, as the case may be, informed of his residential and business addresses and submit in every three months from the date of the said order a return, verified by affidavit, giving full particulars as to his employment, salary, earnings and other income during the preceding three months.

(2) A person who fails to comply with the provisions of this section commits an offence.

Arrest of debtor under certain circumstances

26.—(1) The court may, by warrant addressed to a police officer or prescribed officer of the court, cause a debtor to be arrested, and any books, papers, money and goods in his possession to be seized, and be safely kept as prescribed until the time as the court may order where—

- (a) after a bankruptcy notice has been issued under this Act, or presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, it appears to the court that, there is probable reason for believing that he has absconded or is about to abscond, with a view of avoiding payment of the debt in respect of which the bankruptcy notice was issued, or of avoiding service of a bankruptcy petition or of avoiding appearance to any petition, or of avoiding examination in respect of his affairs, or of otherwise avoiding, delaying or embarrassing proceedings in bankruptcy against him.

- (b) after presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, it appears to the court that there is probable cause for believing that, he is about to remove his goods with a view of preventing or delaying possession being taken of them by the official receiver or trustee, or there is probable ground for believing that he has concealed or is about to conceal or destroy any of his goods, or any books, documents or writing which might be of use to his creditors in the course of his bankruptcy;
- (c) after service of a bankruptcy petition on him, or receiving order is made against him, he removes any goods in his possession above the value of one hundred shillings, without the leave of the official receiver or trustee; or
- (d) without good cause shown, he fails to attend any examination ordered by the court:

Provided that, an arrest upon a bankruptcy notice shall not be valid and protected, unless the debtor before or at the time of his arrest is served with bankruptcy notice.

(2) A payment or composition made or security given after arrest made under this section shall not be exempt from the provisions of this Act relating to fraudulent preferences.

Re-direction of debtor's letters

27. Where a receiving order is made against a debtor, the court, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, may order that, not exceeding six months, as the court thinks fit, post letters, telegrams, cablegrams, and other postal articles, addressed to the debtor at any place or places mentioned in the order for re-direction, shall be re-directed, sent or delivered by the Postmaster-General of the Tanzania Posts Corporation or the officers acting under him, or by any other person in charge of the transmission and receipt of telegrams and cablegrams, to the official receiver, or the trustee, or otherwise as the court directs, and the same shall be done accordingly.

Inquiry as to debtor's conduct dealings and property
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 9

28.—(1) The court may on the application of the official receiver or trustee, at any time after a receiving order has been made against a debtor, summon before it the debtor or any person known or suspected to have in his possession any of the estate or effects belonging to the debtor, or supposed to be indebted to the debtor, or a person whom the court may deem capable of giving information respecting the debtor, his dealings or property, and the court may require a person to produce any documents in his custody or power relating to the debtor, his dealings or property.

(2) Where a person summoned after having been tendered a reasonable sum, refuses to come before the court at the time appointed, or refuses to produce any the documents, having no lawful impediment made known to the court at the time of its sitting and allowed by it, the court may, by warrant, cause him to be apprehended and brought up for examination.

(3) The court may examine on oath; either by word of mouth or by written interrogatories, a person brought before it concerning the debtor, his dealings, or property.

(4) Where a person on examination before the court refuses to answer or does not answer to the satisfaction of the court any question put to him, he shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

(5) Where a person on examination before the court admits that, he is indebted to the debtor, the court may, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, order him to pay to the official receiver or trustee, at the time and in a manner as to the court seems expedient, the amount admitted, or any part thereof, either in full discharge of the whole amount in question or not, as the court thinks fit, with or without costs of the examination.

(6) Where a person on examination before the court admits that, he has in his possession any property belonging to the debtor, the court may, on the application of the official receiver or trustee, order him to deliver to the official receiver or trustee the property or any part thereof, at the time, and in the manner, and on the terms, as to the court may seem just.

(7) The court may, where it thinks fit order that, a person who, if in Tanzania would be liable to be brought before it under this section shall be examined in any other place of Mainland Tanzania.

Discharge of bankrupt
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 10
20 of 1958 s. 10

29.—(1) A bankrupt may, at any time after being adjudged bankrupt, apply to the court for an order of discharge and the court shall appoint a day for hearing the application but the application shall not be heard until the public examination of the bankrupt is concluded, and the application shall, except when the court in, accordance with rules under this Act otherwise directs, be heard in open court.

(2) On the hearing of the application, the court shall take into consideration a report of the official receiver of Tanzania or any reciprocating country as to the bankrupt's conduct and affairs (including a report as to the bankrupt's conduct during the proceedings under his bankruptcy), and may either grant or refuse an absolute order of discharge, or suspend the operation of the order for a specified time, or grant an order of discharge subject to any conditions with respect to any earnings or income which may afterwards become due to the bankrupt, or with respect of his after-acquired property:

Provided that, where the bankrupt has committed any offence under this Act or any other offence connected with his bankruptcy whether in Tanzania or any reciprocating country, or in any case any of the facts hereinafter mentioned are proved to have occurred either in Tanzania or any reciprocating country, the court shall either-

- (a) refuse the discharge;
- (b) suspend the discharge for a period as the court thinks proper;

- (c) suspend the discharge until the debtor shall have paid to his creditors the dividend as the court in its absolute discretion may determine; or
- (d) require the bankrupt as a condition of his discharge to consent to judgment being entered against him by the official receiver or trustee for any balance or part of any balance of the debts provable under the bankruptcy which is not satisfied at the date of the discharge, the balance or part of any balance of the debts to be paid out of the future earnings or after-acquired property of the bankrupt in the manner and subject to the conditions as the court may direct; but execution shall not be issued on the judgment without leave of the court, which leave may be given on proof that, the bankrupt has since his discharge acquired property or income available towards payment of his debts:

Provided that, where at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of any order made under this section, the bankrupt satisfies the court that, there is no reasonable probability of his being in a position to comply with the terms of the order, the court may modify the terms of the order, or of any substituted order, in a manner and upon the conditions as it may think fit.

(3) The facts hereinbefore referred to are that the bankrupt's -

- (a) assets are not of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities, unless he satisfies the court that, the fact that the assets are not of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on and the amount of his unsecured liabilities has arisen from circumstances for which he cannot justly be held responsible;
- (b) has omitted to keep books of account as usual and proper in the business carried on by him and as sufficiently disclose his business transactions and financial position within the three years immediately proceeding his bankruptcy;

- (c) has continued to trade after knowing himself to be insolvent;
- (d) has contracted any debt provable in the bankruptcy without having at the time of contracting it any reasonable or probable ground of expectation (proof whereof shall lie on him) of being able to pay it;
- (e) has failed to account satisfactorily for any loss of assets or for any deficiency of assets to meet his liabilities;
- (f) has brought on, or contributed to, his bankruptcy by rash and hazardous speculations, or by unjustifiable extravagance in living, or by gambling, or by culpable neglect of his business affairs;
- (g) has put any of his creditors to unnecessary expense by a frivolous or vexatious defence to any action properly brought against him;
- (h) has brought on or contributed to his bankruptcy by incurring unjustifiable expense in bringing any frivolous or vexatious action;
- (i) has within three months preceding the date of the receiving order, when unable to pay his debts as they become due, given an undue preference to any of his creditors;
- (j) has, within three months preceding the date of the receiving order, incurred liabilities with a view of making his assets equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities;
- (k) has on any previous occasion, been adjudged bankrupt, or made a composition or arrangement with his creditors;
- (l) has been guilty of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust; or
- (m) has made default in payment of any sum ordered by the court under the provisions of section 55.

(4) With a view to removing any legal disqualification on account of bankruptcy which is removed where the bankrupt obtains from the court, his discharge with a certificate to the effect that, the bankruptcy was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part, the court may, where it thinks fit, grant the certificate, but a refusal to grant the certificate shall be subject to appeal.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a bankrupt's assets shall be deemed of a value equal to ten shillings in the pound on the amount of his unsecured liabilities when the court is satisfied that, the property of the bankrupt has realised, or is likely to realise, or with due care in realisation might have realised, an amount equal to ten shillings in the pound on his unsecured liabilities, and a report by the official receiver or the trustee shall be prima facie evidence of the amount of the liabilities.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the report of the official receiver shall be prima facie evidence of the statements therein contained.

(7) Notice of the appointment by the court of the day for hearing the application for discharge shall be published in the prescribed manner; and sent fourteen days at least before the day appointed to each creditor who has proved, and the court may hear the official receiver and the trustee, and also hear any creditor who has proved, or his representative authorised in writing, and at the hearing the court may put questions to the debtor and receive the evidence as it may think fit.

(8) A discharged bankrupt shall, notwithstanding his discharge, give assistance as the trustee may require in the realisation and distribution of his property as is vested in the trustee, and, where he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of a contempt of court; and the court may also, where it thinks fit, revoke his discharge, but without prejudice to the validity of any sale, disposition or payment duly made or thing duly done subsequent to the discharge but before its revocation.

(9) The powers of suspending and attaching conditions to a bankrupt's discharge may be exercised concurrently.

30. In either of the following cases, that is to say-

- (a) in the case of a settlement made before and in consideration of marriage where the settlor is not at the time of making the settlement able to pay his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement; or

- (b) in the case of any covenant or contract made in consideration of marriage for the future settlement on or for the settlor's wife or children of any money or property wherein he had not at the date of his marriage any estate or interest (not being money or property of or in right of his wife), where the settlor is adjudged bankrupt or compounds or arranges with his creditors, and it appears to the court that, the settlement, covenant, or contract was made in order to defeat or delay creditors, or was unjustifiable having regard to the state of the settlor's affairs at the time when it was made, the court may refuse or suspend an order of discharge, or grant an order subject to conditions, or refuse to approve a composition or arrangement, as the case may be, in like manner as in cases where the debtor has been guilty of fraud.

Failure to apply for discharge
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 11
39 of 1960 s. 2

31. Where the bankrupt does not appear on the day fixed for the hearing of his application for discharge or on subsequent day as the court may direct, he shall be guilty of a contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

Effect of order of discharge

32.-(1) An order of discharge shall not release the bankrupt-

(a) from any debt on a recognisance nor from any debt with which the bankrupt may be chargeable at the suit of the United Republic or of any person for any offence against any law relating to any branch of the general revenue of the United Republic, or at the suit of the bailiff or other public officer on a bail bond entered into for the appearance of a person prosecuted for any offence; and he shall not be discharged from the excepted debts unless the Accountant-General of the United Republic certifies in writing his consent to the bankrupt being discharged therefrom;

- (b) from any debt or liability incurred by means of any fraud or fraudulent breach of trust to which he was a party, nor from any debt or liability whereof he has obtained forbearance by any fraud to which he was a party; or
- (c) from any liability under a judgment against him in an action for seduction or affiliation, or under a judgment against him as a correspondent in a matrimonial cause, except to an extent and under the conditions as the court expressly orders in respect of the liability.

(2) An order of discharge shall release the bankrupt from other debts provable in bankruptcy.

(3) An order of discharge shall be conclusive evidence of the bankruptcy, and of the validity of the proceedings therein, and in any proceedings that may be instituted against a bankrupt who has obtained an order of discharge in respect of any debt from which he is released by the order, the bankrupt may plead that the cause of action occurred before his discharge.

(4) An order of discharge shall not release a person who at the date of the receiving order was a partner or co-trustee with the bankrupt, or was jointly bound or had made any joint contract with him, or a person who was surety or in the nature of a surety for him.

Power of court to annul adjudication in certain cases

33.—(1) Where in the opinion of the court, a debtor ought not to have been adjudged bankrupt, or is proved to the satisfaction of the court that, the debts of the bankrupt are paid in full, the court may, on the application of a person interested, by order annul the adjudication.

(2) Where an adjudication is annulled under this section, sales and dispositions of property and payments duly made, and acts therefore done, by the official receiver, trustee or other person acting under their authority, or by the court, shall be valid, but the property of the debtor who has been adjudged bankrupt shall vest in a person as the court may appoint, or, in default of any appointment, revert to the debtor for his estate or interest therein on terms and subject to the conditions, if any, as the court may declare by order.

(3) Notice of the order annulling an adjudication shall be forthwith gazetted.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a debt disputed by a debtor shall be considered as paid in full where the debtor enters into a bond, in the sum and with sureties as the court approves, to pay the amount to be recovered in a proceeding for the recovery of or concerning the debt, with costs, and any debt due to a creditor who cannot be identified shall be considered as paid in full if paid into court.

Restriction on employment of bankrupt
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 11

34.—(1) A person who has been adjudged bankrupt shall not manage, or assist or take part in the management of, or accept employment in any trade or business owned, either alone or together with any other person, a relative by consanguinity or affinity of the bankrupt unless he shall first have made application to the court for permission so to do and obtained the permission.

(2) On the hearing of the application, the court shall take into consideration a report of the official receiver as to the bankrupt's conduct and affairs, and may refuse the permission or grant the same either unconditionally or subject to conditions or limitations as the court in its absolute discretion may think fit.

(3) Where a bankrupt in respect of whom permission as aforesaid has been granted fails to comply with any conditions or limitation imposed by the court in pursuance of subsection (2) of this section, the official receiver shall report the matter to the court and the court having considered reports shall make order thereupon, including the revocation of its original permission, as to the court may seem just.

(4) A person to whom subsection (1) applies who manages, assists or takes part in the management of, or accepts employment in any trade or business as aforesaid without obtaining the permission of the court, or after revocation of permission, commits an offence.

(5) Where a person to whom subsection (1) applies who, manages or assists or takes part in the management of, or accepts employment in, any trade or business owned, either alone or together with any other person, a relative by consanguinity or affinity of the bankrupt without obtaining the permission of the court, or after revocation of the permission, in contravention of subsection (4), the relative commits an offence unless he proves that, the offence committed by the bankrupt person under that subsection took place without his knowledge or consent.

PART III ADMINISTRATION OF PROPERTY

(a) Proof of Debts

Description of debts provable in bankruptcy

35.—(1) Demands in the nature of unliquidated damages arising otherwise than by reason of a contract, promise or breach of trust shall not be provable in bankruptcy.

(2) A person having notice of any act of bankruptcy available against the debtor shall not prove under the order for any debt or liability contracted by the debtor subsequently to the date of having the notice.

(3) Save as aforesaid, debts and liabilities, present or future, certain or contingent, to which the debtor is subject at the date of the receiving order, or to which he may become subject before his discharge by reason of any obligation incurred before the date of the receiving order, shall be deemed to be debts provable in bankruptcy.

(4) An estimate shall be made by the trustee of the value of any debt or liability provable as aforesaid, which by reason of its being subject to any contingency or contingencies, or for any other reason, does not bear a certain value.

(5) A person aggrieved by any estimate made by the trustee as aforesaid may appeal to the court.

(6) Where in the opinion of the court, the value of the debt or liability is incapable of being fairly estimated, the court may make an order to that effect, and thereupon the debt or liability shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a debt not provable in bankruptcy.

(7) Where in the opinion of the court, the value of the debt or liability is capable of being fairly estimated, the court may assess the value, and the amount of the value when assessed shall be deemed to be a debt provable in bankruptcy.

(8) "Liability" shall, for the purposes of this Act, include-

- (a) a compensation for work or labour done;
- (b) an obligation or possibility of an obligation to pay money or money's worth on the breach of any express or implied covenant, contract, agreement, or undertaking, whether the breach does or does not occur, or is or is not likely to occur or capable of occurring, before the discharge of the debtor; and
- (c) generally, any express or implied engagement, agreement, or undertaking to pay, or capable of resulting in the payment of, or worth; whether the payment is, in respects of amount fixed or unliquidated; as respects time, present or future, certain or dependent on anyone contingency or on two or more contingencies; as to mode of valuation, capable of being ascertained, by fixed rules or as matter of opinion.

Mutual credit and set-off

36. Where there have been mutual credits, mutual debts or other mutual dealings between a debtor against whom a receiving order shall be made under this Act and any other person proving or claiming to prove a debt under the receiving order, an account shall be taken of what is due from the one party to the other in respect of mutual dealings, and the sum due from the one party shall be set off against any sum due from the other party, and the balance of the account, and no more, shall be claimed or paid on either side respectively; but a person shall not be entitled under this section to claim the benefit of any set-off against the property of a debtor in any case where he had, at the time of giving credit to the debtor, notice of an act of bankruptcy committed by the debtor and available against him.

Rules as to proof of debts

37. With respect to the mode of proving debts, the right of proof by secured and other creditors, the admission and rejection of proofs, and the other matters referred to in the Second Schedule and the rules in that Schedule shall be observed.

Priority of debts
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 2
36 of 1952 s. 2
20 of 1958 s. 12

38.—(1) In the distribution of the property of a bankrupt, there shall be paid in priority to other debts—

- (a) Government taxes and local rates due from the bankrupt at the date of the receiving order, and having become due and payable within twelve months next before that date not exceeding in the whole one year's assessment;
- (b) Government rents not more than five years in arrear;
- (c) wages or salary whether or not earned wholly or in part by way of commission of any clerk or servant in respect of service rendered to the bankrupt during the four months next before the date of the receiving order, not exceeding four thousand shillings;
- (d) wages of any workman or labourer not exceeding four thousand shillings, whether payable for time or piecework, in respect of service rendered to the bankrupt during the four months next before the date of the receiving order:

Provided that, where a workman or labourer has entered into a contract for the payment of a portion of his wages in a lump sum at the end of the period or hiring, the priority under this section shall extend to the whole of sum, or part thereof, as the court may decide to be due under the contract, proportionate to the time of service up to the date of the receiving order;

- (e) amounts due in respect of compensation or liability for compensation which are given priority under the Workers' Compensation Act; and

(f) sums of money deposited by with the bankrupt for safe custody, whether the bankrupt held himself out as a banker or not.

(2) The foregoing debts shall rank equally between themselves, and be paid in full, unless the property of the bankrupt is insufficient to meet them, in which case they shall abate in equal proportions between themselves.

(3) Subject to the retention of sums as may be necessary for the costs of administration or otherwise, the foregoing debts shall be discharged forth as far as the property of the debtor is sufficient to meet them.

(4) In the event of a landlord or other person distraining or having distrained on any goods or effects of a bankrupt within the three months next before the date of the receiving order, the debts to which priority is given by this section shall be a first charge on the goods or effects distrained on, or the proceeds of the sale thereof:

Provided that, in respect of any money paid under any charge the landlord or other person shall have the same rights of priority as the person to whom the payment is made.

(5) Where a debtor by or against whom a bankruptcy petition has been presented dies, this section shall apply as if he were a bankrupt, and the date of his death were substituted for the date of the receiving order.

(6) In the case of partners, the joint estate shall be applicable in the first instance in payment of their joint debts and the separate estate of each partner shall be applicable in the first instance in payment of his separate debts, and where there is a surplus of the-

- (a) separate estates, it shall be dealt with as part of the joint estate; or
- (b) joint estate, it shall be dealt with as part of the respective separate estates in proportion to the right and interest of each partner in the joint estate.

(7) Subject to the provisions of this Act, debts proved in the bankruptcy, shall be paid pari passu.

(8) Where there is a surplus after payment of the foregoing debts, it shall be applied in payment of interest from the date of the receiving order at the rate of six pounds percent per annum on debts proved in the bankruptcy.

(9) This section shall not prejudice the provisions of any enactment relating to deeds of arrangement respecting the payment of expenses incurred by the trustee under a deed of arrangement which has been avoided by the bankruptcy of the debtor.

Preferential claim in case of apprenticeship

39.—(1) Where at the time of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, a person is apprenticed or is an articulated clerk to the bankrupt, the adjudication of bankruptcy shall, if either the bankrupt or apprentice or clerk gives notice in writing to the trustee to that effect, be a complete discharge of the indenture of apprenticeship or article of agreement; and, where any money has been paid by or on behalf of the apprentice or clerk to the bankrupt as a fee, the trustee may, on the application of the apprentice or clerk, or of some person on his behalf, pay sum as the trustee, subject to an appeal to the court, thinks reasonable, out of the bankrupt's property, to or for the use of the apprentice or clerk, regard being had to the amount paid by him or on his behalf, and the time during which he served with the bankrupt under the indenture or articles before the commencement of the bankruptcy, and other circumstances of the case.

(2) Where it appears expedient to a trustee, he may, on the application of any apprentice or articulated clerk to the bankrupt, or any person acting on behalf of apprentice or articulated clerk, instead of acting under the preceding provisions of this section, transfer the indenture of apprenticeship or articles of agreement to some person.

Landlord's power of distress in case of bankruptcy

40. The landlord or other person to whom any rent is due from the bankrupt may at any time, either before or after the commencement of the bankruptcy, distrain upon the goods or effects of the bankrupt for the rent due to him from the bankrupt with this limitation that, where distress for rent be levied after the commencement of the bankruptcy it shall be available only for six month's rent accrued due prior to the date of the order of adjudication and shall not be available for rent payable in respect of any period subsequent to the date when the distress was levied, but the landlord or other person to whom the rent may be due from the bankrupt may prove under the bankruptcy for the surplus due for which the distress may not have been available.

Postponement of claims by relatives
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 13
20 of 1958 s. 13

41. Where a receiving order has been made against a debtor, a relative by consanguinity or affinity of the debtor who has a claim against the debtor for salary or wages due or in respect of any money or other estate lent or entrusted to the debtor shall not be entitled to claim as a creditor in respect thereof until the claims of the others creditors for valuable consideration or money's worth have been satisfied.

(b) Property Available for Payment of Debts

Relation back to
trustee's title

42.—(1) The bankruptcy of a debtor, whether it takes place on the debtor's own petition or upon that of a creditor or creditors shall be deemed to have relation back to, and to commence at the time of the act of bankruptcy being committed on which a receiving order is made against him, or, where the bankrupt is proved to have committed more acts of bankruptcy than one, to have relation back to and commence at the time of the first of the acts of bankruptcy proved to have been committed by the bankrupt within three months next preceding, the date of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition; but a bankruptcy petition, receiving order or adjudication shall not be rendered invalid by reason of any act of bankruptcy anterior to the debt of the petitioning creditor.

(2) Where a receiving order is made against the judgment debtor in pursuance of section 102, the bankruptcy of the debtor shall be deemed to have relation back to, and to commence at the time of the order, or where the bankrupt is proved to have committed any previous act of bankruptcy, then to have relation back to, and to commence at the time of the first of the acts of bankruptcy proved to have been committed by the debtor within three months next preceding the date of the order.

Description of bankrupt's property divisible
amongst creditors
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 14

43. The property of the bankrupt divisible amongst the creditors, and in this Act referred to as the property of the bankrupt, shall not comprise the following particulars:

- (a) property held by the bankrupt on trust for any other person; and
- (b) the tools (if any) of trade and the necessary wearing apparel and bedding including his wife and children, to a value inclusive of tools and apparel and bedding, not exceeding five hundred shillings in the whole, except that in any case the court having regard to the bankrupt's station in life, may in its discretion order that this allowance be increased to any value not exceeding one thousand shillings in the whole:

But it shall comprise the following particulars:

- (i) property as may belong to or be vested in the bankrupt at the commencement of the bankruptcy, or may be acquired by or devolve on him before his discharge;
- (ii) the capacity to exercise and take proceedings for exercising the powers in or over or in respect of property as might have been exercised by the bankruptcy for his own benefit at the commencement of his bankruptcy or before his discharge; and
- (iii) goods, being at the commencement of the bankruptcy in the possession, order or disposition of the bankrupt, in his trade or business, by the consent and permission of the true owner under the circumstances that he is the reputed owner thereof:

Provided that, things in action other than debts due or growing due to the bankrupt in the course of his trade or business shall not be deemed goods within the meaning of this section.

Provisions as to second
bankruptcy

44.—(1) Where a second or subsequent receiving order is made against a bankrupt, or where an order is made for the administration in bankruptcy of the estate of a deceased bankrupt, then for the purposes of any proceedings consequent upon any order, the trustee in the last preceding bankruptcy shall be deemed to be a creditor in respect of any unsatisfied balance of the debts provable against the property of the bankrupt in that bankruptcy.

(2) In the event of a second or subsequent receiving order made against a bankrupt being followed by an order adjudging him bankrupt, or in the event of an order being made for the administration in bankruptcy of the estate of a deceased bankrupt, any property acquired by him since he was last adjudged bankrupt, which at the date when the subsequent petition was presented had not been distributed amongst the creditors in the last preceding bankruptcy, shall (subject to any disposition thereof made by the official receiver or trustee in that bankruptcy, without knowledge of the presentation of the subsequent petition, and subject to the provisions of section 52) vest in the trustee in the subsequent bankruptcy or administration in bankruptcy as the case may be.

(3) Where the trustee in any bankruptcy receives notice of a subsequent petition in bankruptcy against the bankrupt or after his decease of a petition for the administration of his estate in bankruptcy, the trustee shall hold any property in his possession which has been acquired by the bankrupt since he was adjudged bankrupt until the subsequent petition has been disposed of, and, where on the subsequent petition an order of the administration of the estate in bankruptcy is made, he shall transfer the property or the proceeds thereof (after deducting his costs and expenses) to the trustee in the subsequent bankruptcy or administration in bankruptcy, as the case may be.

(c) Effect of Bankruptcy of Antecedent and Other Transactions

Restriction of rights of creditor
under execution
or attachment

45.—(1) Where a creditor has issued execution against the goods or lands of a debtor, or has attached any debt due to him, he shall not be entitled to retain the benefit of the execution or attachment against the trustee in bankruptcy of the debtor, unless he has completed the execution or attachment before the date of the receiving order, and before notice of the presentation of any bankruptcy petition by or against the debtor or of the commission of any available act of bankruptcy by the debtor.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, an execution against goods is completed by seizure and sale; an attachment of a debt is completed by receipt of the debt; and an execution against land is completed by seizure, or, in the case of an equitable interest, by the appointment of a receiver.

(3) An execution levied by seizure and sale on the goods of a debtor is not invalid by reason only of its being an act of bankruptcy, and a person who purchases the goods in good faith under a sale by the bailiff shall acquire a good title to them against the trustee in bankruptcy.

Duties of bailiff
as to goods taken in execution

46.—(1) Where goods of a debtor are taken in execution, and before the sale thereof, or the completion of the execution by the receipt or recovery of the full amount of the levy, notice is served on the bailiff that, a receiving order has been made against the debtor, the bailiff shall, on request, deliver the goods and any money seized or received in part satisfaction of the execution to the official receiver, but the costs of the execution shall be a first charge on the goods or money delivered, and the official receiver or trustee may sell the goods, or an adequate part thereof, for the purpose of satisfying the charge.

(2) Where, under an execution in respect of a judgment for a sum exceeding four hundred shillings, the goods of a debtor are sold or money is paid in order to avoid sale, the bailiff shall deduct his costs of the execution from the proceeds of sale or the money paid, and retain the balance for fourteen days, and where within that time notice is served on him of a bankruptcy petition having been presented by or against the debtor, and a receiving order is made against the debtor thereon or on any other petition of which the bailiff has notice, the bailiff shall pay the balance to the official receiver, or, as the case may be, to the trustee, who shall be entitled to retain it as against the execution creditor.

(3) Where goods in the possession of an execution debtor at the time of seizure by a bailiff are sold by the bailiff without any claim having been made to the same, the purchaser of the goods sold shall acquire a good title to the goods, and a person shall not be entitled to recover against the bailiff or any other person lawfully acting under his authority, for any sale of the goods or for paying over the proceeds thereof prior to the receipt of a claim to the goods, unless it is proved that, the person from whom recovery is sought had notice, or might by making reasonable inquiry have ascertained that, the goods were not the property of the execution debtor:

Provided that, this subsection shall not affect the right of any claimant who may prove that, at the time of sale he had a title to the goods and to any remedy to which he may be entitled against any person other than the bailiff.

Avoidance of certain settlements

47.-(1) A settlement of property, not being a settlement before and in consideration of marriage, or made in favour of a purchaser or incumbrancer in good faith and for valuable consideration or a settlement made on or for the wife or children of the settlor of property which has accrued to the settlor after marriage in right of his wife, where the settlor becomes bankrupt within two years after the date of the settlement, shall be void against the trustee in the bankruptcy, and where the settlor becomes bankrupt at any subsequent time within ten years after the date of the settlement, shall be void against the trustee in the bankruptcy, unless the parties claiming under the settlement can prove that, the settlor was, at the time of making the settlement, able to pay his debts without the aid of the property comprised in the settlement, and the interest of the settlor in the property passed to the trustee of the settlement on the execution thereof.

(2) A covenant or contract made by any person (hereinafter called the settlor) in consideration of his or her marriage, either for the future payment of money for the benefit of then settlor's spouse, or children, or for the future settlement on or for the settlor's spouse, or children, of property, wherein the settlor had not at the date of the marriage any estate or interest, whether vested or contingent, in possession or remainder, and not being money or property in right of the settlor's spouse, shall, where the settlor is adjudged bankrupt and the covenant or contract has not been executed at the date of the commencement of his bankruptcy, be void against the trustee in the bankruptcy, except so far as it enables the person entitled under the covenant or contract to claim for dividend in the settlor's bankruptcy under or in respect of the covenant or contract, but any claim to dividend shall be postponed until claims of the other creditors for valuable consideration in money's worth have been satisfied.

(3) A payment of money (not being payment of premiums on a policy of life assurance) or any transfer of property made by the settlor in pursuance of a covenant or contract as aforesaid shall be void against the trustee in the settlor's bankruptcy unless the persons to whom the payment or transfer was made proved either that-

- (a) the payment or transfer was made more than two years before the date of the commencement of the bankruptcy;
- (b) at the date of the payment or transfer the settlor was able to pay his debts without the aid of the money paid or the property transferred; or
- (c) the payment or transfer was made in pursuance of a covenant or contract to pay or transfer money or property expected to come to the settlor from or on the death of a particular person named in the covenant or contract and was made within three months after the money or property came into the possession or under the control of the settlor, but, in the event of any payment or transfer being declared void, the persons to whom it was made shall be entitled to claim for dividend under or in respect of the covenant or contract in like manner as if it had not been executed at the commencement of the bankruptcy.

(4) “Settlement” shall for the purposes of this section, include any conveyance or transfer of property.

Avoidance of unregistered assignments of debts
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 14
Cap. 210

48. Where a person makes an assignment, whether by way of security or otherwise, to any other person of any existing or future debts owing or to become owing to him, or any class of debts, the provisions of section 13 of the Chattels Transfer Act, shall apply.

Avoidance of preference in certain cases
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 15

49.—(1) A conveyance or transfer of property or charge thereon made, a payment made, an obligation incurred, and a judicial proceeding taken or suffered by a person unable to pay his debts as they become due from his own money in favour of any creditor, or of any person in trust for any creditor, with a view of giving the creditor, or any surety or guarantor for the debt due to the creditor, a preference over the other creditors, shall where the person making, taking, paying or suffering the same is adjudged bankrupt on a bankruptcy petition presented within six months after the date of making, taking, paying or suffering the same, be deemed fraudulent and void as against the trustee in the bankruptcy.

(2) This section shall not affect the rights of a person making title in good faith and for valuable consideration through or under a creditor of the bankrupt.

(3) Where a receiving order is made against a judgment debtor in pursuance of section 102, this section shall apply as if the debtor had been adjudged bankrupt on a bankruptcy petition presented at the date of the receiving order.

Protection of bona fide transitions
without notice

50. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Act with respect to the effect of bankruptcy on an execution or attachment, and with respect to the avoidance of certain settlements, assignments and preferences, this Act shall not invalidate, in the case of a bankruptcy-

- (a) payment by the bankrupt to any of his creditors;
- (b) payment or delivery to the bankrupt;
- (c) conveyance or assignment by the bankrupt for valuable consideration; and
- (d) contract, dealing, or transaction by or with the bankrupt for valuable consideration:

Provided that, both the following conditions are complied with, namely that the-

- (i) a payment, delivery, conveyance, assignment, contract, dealing or transaction, as the case may be, takes place before the date of the receiving order; and
- (ii) a person (other than the debtor) to, by, or with whom the payment, delivery, conveyance, assignment, contract, dealing, or transaction was made, executed, or entered into has not at the time of the payment, delivery, conveyance, assignment, contract, dealing, or transaction, notice of any available act of bankruptcy committed by the bankrupt before that time.

Validity of certain payments to bankrupt and assignee

51. A payment of money or delivery of property to a person subsequently adjudged bankrupt, or to a person claiming, by assignment from him notwithstanding anything in this Act, shall be a good discharge to the person paying the money or delivering the property, where the payment or delivery is made before the actual date on which the receiving order is made and without notice of the presentation of a bankruptcy petition, and is either pursuant to the ordinary course of business or otherwise bona fide.

Dealings with undischarged bankrupt

52.-(1) The transactions by a bankrupt with a person dealing with him bona fide and for value, in respect of property, whether movable or immovable, acquired by the bankrupt after the adjudication, where completed before any intervention by the trustee, shall be valid against the trustee, and any estate or interest in the property which by virtue of this Act is vested in the trustee shall determine and pass in a manner and to the extent as may be required for giving effect to any transaction.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the receipt of any money, security or negotiable instrument from, or by the order or direction of a bankrupt by his banker, and any payment and any delivery of any security or negotiable instrument made to, or by the order or direction of a bankrupt by his banker, shall be deemed to be a transaction by the bankrupt with the banker dealing with him for value.

(3) Where a banker has ascertained that, a person having an account with him is an undischarged bankrupt, then, unless the banker is satisfied that, the account is on behalf of some other person, it shall be his duty forthwith to inform the trustee in the bankruptcy or the official receiver of the existence of the account, and thereafter he shall not make any payments out of the account, except under an order of the court or in accordance with instructions from the trustee in the bankruptcy, unless by the expiration of one month from the date giving the information, an instructions have not been received from the trustee or the official receiver.

(d) Realisation of Property

Possession of property by trustee

53.—(1) The trustee shall, as soon as may be, take possession of the deeds, books, and documents of the bankrupt, and other parts of his property capable of manual delivery.

(2) The trustee shall, in relation to and for the purpose of acquiring or retaining possession of the property of the bankrupt, be in the same position as if he were a receiver of the property appointed by the court, and the court may, on his application, enforce the acquisition or retention accordingly.

(3) Where any part of the property of the bankrupt consists of stock, shares in ships, shares, or any other property transferable in the books of any company, office, or person, the trustee may exercise the right to transfer the property to the same extent as the bankrupt might have exercised it if he had not become bankrupt.

(4) Where any part of the property of the bankrupt consists of things in action, the things shall be deemed to have been duly assigned to the trustee.

(5) Subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to property acquired by a bankrupt after adjudication, any treasurer or other officer, or any banker, attorney, or agent of a bankrupt, shall pay and deliver to the trustee money and securities in his possession or power, as the officer, banker, attorney, or agent, which is not by law entitled to retain as against the bankrupt or the trustee and where he does not, he shall be guilty of a contempt of court, and may be punished accordingly on the application of the trustee.

property of
bankrupt

54. A person acting under warrant of the court may seize any part of the property of a bankrupt or of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made, in the custody or possession of the bankrupt or the debtor, or of any other person, and with a view to the seizure, may break open any house building or room of the bankrupt or the debtor, where the bankrupt or the debtor is supposed to be, or any building or receptacle of the bankrupt or the debtor where any of his property is supposed to be, and where the court is satisfied that, there is reason to believe that property of a bankrupt, or of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made, is concealed in a house or place not belonging to him, the court may, where it thinks fit, grant a search warrant to any police officer or officer of the court, who may execute it according to its tenor.

Appropriation of proportion of pay or salary to creditors Ords.
Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 6;
20 of 1958 s. 15

55.—(1) Where a bankrupt is an officer of the army, navy or air force, or an officer or clerk or otherwise employed or engaged in the civil service of the United Republic, the trustee shall receive for distribution amongst the creditors the bankrupt's pay or salary as the court, on application of the trustee, with the consent of the head of the department under which the pay or salary is enjoyed, may direct and before making any order

under this subsection, the court shall communicate with the head of the department as to the amount, time, and manner of the payment to the trustee, and obtain the written consent of the head of the department to the terms of the payment.

(2) Where a bankrupt is in receipt of a salary or income other than as aforesaid, the court, on the application of the trustee, shall make order as it thinks just for the payment of the salary or income, or of any part thereof, to the trustee to be applied by him in a manner as the court may direct.

(3) Where a bankrupt is an employee and earning wages, irrespective of whether payment of the wages is made by the day or any other period of time, the court, on the application of the trustee, shall make an order as it thinks just for the payment of any part of the wages to the trustee to be applied by him in a manner as the court may direct.

(4) An order made under subsection (1) of this section shall be served upon the bankrupt and upon the head of department, and the order made under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be served upon the bankrupt and may, at any time after the making thereof, be served upon the person by whom the salary or income of the bankrupt is paid or upon the bankrupt's employer, as the case may be; and where any order as aforesaid is served upon the head of department, the person paying the salary or income or the employer, as the case may be, the amounts of pay, salary, income or wages specified in the order shall thereafter be paid to the trustee in conformity with the terms thereof.

(5) This section shall not take away or abridge any power of the President to dismiss a bankrupt.

56. Where a married woman who has been adjudged bankrupt has property, the income of which is subject to a restraint on anticipation, the court shall have power, on the application of the trustee, to order that, during the time as the court may order, the whole or some part of the income be paid to the trustee for distribution amongst the creditors, and in the exercise of the power, the court shall have regard to the means of subsistence available for the woman and her children.

Vesting and transfer of property

57.—(1) Until a trustee is appointed, the official receiver shall be the trustee for the purposes of this Act, and, immediately on a debtor being adjudged bankrupt, the property of the bankrupt shall vest in the trustee.

(2) On the appointment of a trustee, the property shall forthwith pass to and vest in the trustee appointed.

(3) The property of the bankrupt shall pass from trustee to trustee, including under that term the official receiver when he fills the office of trustee, and vest in the trustee for the time being during his continuance in office, without any conveyance, assignment, or transfer whatsoever.

(4) The certificate of appointment of a trustee shall for the purposes of any law in force in any part of Tanzania requiring registration or recording of conveyances or assignments of property, be deemed to be a conveyance or assignment of property, and may be registered and recorded accordingly.

Disclaimer of onerous property

58.—(1) Where any part of the property of the bankrupt consists of land of any tenure burdened with onerous covenants of shares or stock on companies of unprofitable contracts, or of any other property that is unsaleable, or not readily saleable by reason of its binding the possessor thereof to the performance of any onerous act, or to the payment of any sum of money, the trustee, notwithstanding that he has endeavoured to sell or has taken possession of the property, or exercised any act of ownership in relation thereto, but subject to the provisions of this section, may, by writing signed by him, at any time within twelve months after the first appointment of a trustee or extended period as may be allowed by the court, disclaim the property:

Provided that, where any property has not come to the knowledge of the trustee within one month after the appointment, he may disclaim the property at any time within twelve months after he has become aware thereof or the extended period as may be allowed by the court.

(2) The disclaimer shall operate to determine, as from the date of disclaimer, the rights, interests, liabilities of the bankrupt and his property in or in respect of the property disclaimed, and also discharge the trustee from personal liability in respect of the property disclaimed as from the date when the property was vested in him, but shall not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the bankrupt and his property and the trustee from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.

(3) A trustee shall not be entitled to disclaim a lease without the leave of the court, except in any case which may be prescribed by general rules, and the court may, before or on granting the leave, require the notices to be given to persons interested, and impose terms as a condition of granting leave, and make orders with respect to fixtures, tenant's improvements, and other matters arising out of the tenancy, as the court thinks just.

(4) The trustee shall not be entitled to disclaim any property in pursuance of this section in any case where an application in writing has been made to the trustee by any person interested in the property, requiring him to decide whether he will disclaim or not, and the trustee has for a period of twenty-eight days after the receipt of the application, or extended period as may be allowed by the court, declined or neglected to give notice whether he disclaims the property or not; and, in the case of a contract, where the trustee, after the application as aforesaid, does not within the said period or extended period disclaim the contract, he shall be deemed to have adopted it.

(5) The court may, on the application of any person who against the trustee, entitled to the benefit or subject to the burden of a contract made with the bankrupt, make an order rescinding the contract on the terms as to payment by or to either party of damages for the non-performance of the contract, or otherwise, as to the court may seem equitable and any damages payable under the order to any person may be proved by him as a debt under the bankruptcy.

(6) The court may, on application by any person either claiming any interest in any disclaimed property or under any liability not discharged by this Act in respect of any disclaimed property, and on hearing the persons as it thinks fit, make an order for the vesting of the property in or delivery thereof to any person entitled thereto, or to whom it may seem just that the same should be delivered by way of compensation for the liability as aforesaid, or a trustee for him, and on the terms as the court thinks just; and on any vesting order being made, the property comprised therein shall vest accordingly in the person therein named in that behalf without any conveyance or assignment for the purpose:

Provided that, where the property disclaimed is of a leasehold nature, the court shall not make a vesting order in favour of any person claiming under the bankrupt, whether as under lessee or as mortgagee by demise, except upon the terms of making that persons-

- (a) subject to the same liabilities and obligations as the bankrupt was subject to under the lease in respect of the property at the date when the bankruptcy petition was filed; or
- (b) where the court thinks fit, subject only to the same liabilities and obligations as if the lease had been assigned to that person at that date, and in either event (if the case so requires) as if the lease had comprised only the property comprised in the vesting order; and any mortgagee or under lessee declining to accept a vesting order upon the terms shall be excluded from the interest in and security upon the property, and, where there is no person claiming under the bankrupt who is willing to accept an order upon the terms, the court shall have power to vest the bankrupt's estate and interest in the property in any person liable either personally or in a representative character, and either alone or jointly with the bankrupt to perform the lessee's covenants in the lease, freed and discharged from estates, incumbrances, and interests created therein by the bankrupt.

(7) Where, on the release, removal, resignation or death of a trustee in bankruptcy, an official receiver is acting as trustee, he may disclaim any property which might be disclaimed by a trustee under the foregoing provisions, notwithstanding that, the time prescribed by this section for the disclaimer has expired, but the power of disclaimer shall be exercisable only within twelve months after the official receiver has become trustee in the circumstances aforesaid, or has become aware of the existence of the property, whichever period may last expire.

(8) A person injured by the operation of a disclaimer under this section shall be deemed to be a creditor of the bankrupt to the extent of the injury, and may accordingly prove the same as a debt under the bankruptcy.

Powers of trustee to deal with property

59. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the trustee may do all or any of the following things:

- (a) sell all or any part of the property of the bankrupt (including the goodwill of the business, with any, and the book debts due or growing due to the bankrupt), by public auction or private contract, with power to transfer the whole thereof to any person or company, or to sell the same in parcels;
- (b) give receipts for any money received by him, which receipts shall effectually discharge the person paying the money from the responsibility in respect of the application thereof;
- (c) prove, rank, claim, and draw a dividend in respect of any debt due to the bankrupt;
- (d) exercise any powers, the capacity to exercise which is vested in the trustee under this Act, and execute any powers of attorney, deeds and other instruments, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act; or
- (e) deal with any property to which the bankrupt is beneficially entitled as tenant in tail in the same manner as the bankrupt might have dealt with it.

Powers exercisable by trustee with permission of committee of inspection

60.—(1) The trustee may, with the permission of the committee of inspection, do all or any of following things:

- (a) carry on the business of the bankrupt, so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding up of the same;
- (b) bring, institute, or defend any action or other legal proceeding relating to the property of the bankrupt;
- (c) employ an advocate or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which may be sanctioned by the committee of inspection;
- (d) accept as the consideration for the sale of any property of the bankrupt, a sum of money payable at a future time subject to the stipulations as to security and otherwise as the committee think fit;
- (e) mortgage or pledge any part of the property of the bankrupt for the purpose of raising money for the payment of his debts;
- (f) refer any dispute to arbitration, compromise any debts, claims and liabilities, whether present or future, certain or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, subsisting or supposed to subsist between the bankrupt and any person who may have incurred any liability to the bankrupt on the receipt of the sums payable at the times, and generally on terms as may be agreed on;
- (g) make compromise or other arrangement as may be thought expedient with creditors, or person claiming to be creditors, in respect of any debts provable under the bankruptcy;
- (h) make compromise or other arrangement as may be thought expedient with respect to any claim arising out of or incidental to the property of the bankrupt, made or capable of being made on the trustee by any person or by the trustee on any person; or
- (i) divide in its existing form amongst the creditors, according to its estimated value, any property advantageously sold which from its peculiar nature or other special circumstances cannot be readily or advantageously sold.

(2) The permission given for the purpose of this section shall not be a general permission to do all or any of the above mentioned things, but shall only be a permission to do the particular thing or things for which permission is sought in the specified case or cases.

Power to allow bankrupt to manage property

61. The trustee with the permission of the committee of inspection may appoint the bankrupt himself to superintend the management of the property of the bankrupt or of any part thereof, or to carry on the trade (if any) of the bankrupt for the benefit of his creditors, and in any other respect, to aid in administering the property in a manner and on terms as the trustee may direct.

Allowance to bankrupt for maintenance or service

62. The trustee may with the permission of the committee of inspection, make allowance as he may think just to the bankrupt out of his property for the support of the bankrupt and his family, or in consideration of his services where he is engaged in winding up his estate, but the allowance may be reduced by the court.

Right of trustee to inspect goods
pawned, etc.

63. Where goods of debtor against whom a receiving order has been made are held by any person by way of pledge, pawn or other security, it shall be lawful for the official receiver or trustee, after giving notice in writing of his intention to do so, to inspect the goods, and where the notice has been given, the person as aforesaid shall not be entitled to realise his security until he has given the trustee a reasonable opportunity of inspecting the goods and of exercising his right of redemption where he thinks fit to do so.

Limitation of trustee's powers in relation to copyright

64. Where the property of a bankrupt comprises the copyright in any work or any interest in the copyright, and he is liable to pay to the author of the work royalties or a share of the profits in respect thereof, the trustee shall not be entitled to sell, or authorise the sale of any copies of the work, or to perform or authorise the performance of the work, except on the terms of paying to the author, the sums by way of royalty or share of the profits as would have been payable by the bankrupt, nor shall he, without the consent of the author or of the court, be entitled to assign the right or transfer the interest or to grant interest in the right by licence, except upon terms which will secure to the author payments by way of royalty or share of the profits at rate not less than that which the bankrupt was liable to pay.

Protection of official receiver and trustee from personal liability
in certain cases

65. Where the official receiver or trustee has seized or disposed of any goods, chattels, property, or other effects in the possession or on the premises of a debtor against whom a receiving order has been made, without notice of any claim by any person in respect of the same, and it is thereafter made to appear that, the said goods, chattels, property, or other effects were not, at the date of the receiving order the property of the debtor, the official receiver or trustee shall not be personally liable for any loss or damage arising from the seizure or disposal sustained by any person claiming the property, nor for the costs of any proceeding taken to establish a claim thereto, unless the court is of opinion that, the official receiver or trustee has been guilty of negligence in respect of the same.

(e) Distribution of Property

Declaration and distribution of dividends

66.—(1) Subject to the retention of sums as may be necessary for the costs of administration, or otherwise, the trustee shall, with convenient speed, declare and distribute dividends amongst the creditors who have proved their debts.

(2) The first dividend, if any, shall be declared and distributed within four months after the conclusion of the first meeting of creditors unless the trustee satisfies the committee of inspection that, there is sufficient reason for postponing the declaration to a later date.

(3) Subsequent dividends shall, in the absence of sufficient reason to the contrary, be declared and distributed at intervals of not more than six months.

(4) Before declaring a dividend, the trustee shall cause notice of his intention to do so to be gazetted in the prescribed manner, and send reasonable notice thereof to each creditor mentioned in the bankrupt's statement who has not proved his debt.

(5) When the trustee has declared a dividend, he shall send to each creditor who has proved a notice, showing the amount of the dividend and when and how it is payable, and a statement in the prescribed form as to the particulars of the estate.

Joint and separate dividends

67.—(1) Where one partner of a firm is adjudged bankrupt, a creditor to whom the bankrupt is indebted jointly with the other partners of the firm, or any of them, shall not receive any dividend out of the separate property of the bankrupt until the separate creditors have received the full amount of their respective debts.

(2) Where joint and separate properties are being administered, dividends of the joint and separate properties shall, unless otherwise directed by the court on the application of any person interested, be declared together, and the expenses of and incidental to the dividends shall be fairly apportioned by the trustee between the joint and separate properties, regard being had to the work done for and the benefit received by each property.

Provisions for creditors residing at distance etc.

68.—(1) In the calculation and distribution of a dividend, the trustee shall make provision for debts provable in bankruptcy appearing from the bankrupt's statements, or otherwise, to be due to persons resident in places so distant from the place where the trustee is acting and in the ordinary course of communication, they have not had sufficient time to tender their proofs, or to establish them, if disputed, and also for debts provable in bankruptcy the subject of claims not yet determined.

(2) The trustee shall also make provision for any disputed proofs, claims, and expenses necessary for the administration of the estate or otherwise.

(3) Subject to the foregoing provisions, the trustee shall distribute as dividend, money in hand.

Right of creditor who has not proved debt
before declaration of dividend

69. A creditor who has not proved his debt before the declaration of any dividend or dividends shall be entitled to be paid out of any money for the time being in the hands of the trustee, any dividend or dividends he may have failed to receive before that money is applied to the payment of any future dividend or dividends, but he shall not be entitled to disturb the distribution of any dividend declared before his debt was proved by reason that, he has not participated therein.

Interest on debts
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 16

70.—(1) Where a debt has been proved, and the debt includes interest, or any pecuniary consideration in lieu of interest, the interest or consideration shall, for the purposes of dividend, be calculated at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, without prejudice to the right of a creditor to receive out of the estate any higher rate of interest to which he may be entitled after the debts proved in the estate have been paid in full.

(2) In dealing with the proof of the debt, the following rules shall be observed—

- (a) account settled between the debtor and the creditor within three years preceding the date of the receiving order may be examined, and where it appears that the settlement of the account forms substantially one transaction with any debt alleged to be due out of the debtor's estate (whether in the form of renewal of a loan or capitalisation of interest or ascertainment of loans or otherwise), the accounts may be re-opened and the whole transaction treated as one;
- (b) payments made by the debtor to the creditor before the receiving order, whether by way of bonus or otherwise, and any sums received by the creditor before the receiving order from the realisation of any security for the debt, shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be appropriated to principal and interest in the proportion that the principal bears to the sum payable as interest at the agreed rate; and

- (c) where the debt due is secured and the security is realised after the receiving order, or the value thereof is assessed in the proof, the amount realised or assessed shall be appropriated to the satisfaction of principal and interest in the proportion that, the principal bears to the sum payable as interest at the agreed rate.

Final dividend

71.—(1) When the trustee has realised that, the property of the bankrupt, or so much thereof as can, in the joint opinion of himself and of the committee of inspection, be realised without needlessly protracting the trusteeship, he shall declare a final dividend, but before so doing he shall give notice in a manner prescribed to the persons whose claims to the creditors have been notified to him, but not established to his satisfaction, that where they do not establish their claims to the satisfaction of the court within a time limited by the notice, he will proceed to make a final dividend, without regard to their claims.

(2) After the expiration of the time so limited, or, where the court on application by any claimant grants him further time for establishing his claim, then on the expiration of further time, the property of the bankrupt shall be divided among the creditors who have proved their debts, without regard to the claims of any other persons.

Action for dividend

72. An action for dividend shall not be instituted against the trustee, but, where the trustee refuses to pay any dividend, the court may, where it thinks fit, order him to pay it, and also to payout of his own money interest thereon for the time that it is withheld, and the costs of the application.

Right of bankrupt to surplus

73. The bankrupt shall be entitled to any surplus remaining after payment in full of his creditors, with interest, as by this Act provided, and of the costs, charges, and expenses of the proceedings under the bankrupt petition.

PART IV

OFFICIAL RECEIVER AND STAFF

Appointment of official receiver and deputy official receivers
Act No.
1 of 2018 s. 5
GN. No.
478 of 1962

74.—(1) There shall be an official receiver of debtors' estates for the United Republic and as many deputy official receivers as may be required who shall have jurisdiction in the areas as may be specified.

(2) The deputy official receivers shall be appointed, removable by and under the general authority and directions of the Minister responsible for Legal Affairs and they shall also be officers of the court.

(3) A deputy official receiver shall have the same powers, rights and duties within the area for which he is appointed as an official receiver under this Act.

Status of official receiver

75.—(1) The duties of the official receiver shall have relation to the conduct of the debtor and to the administration of his estate.

(2) The official receiver may, for the purposes of affidavits verifying proofs, petitions, or other proceedings under this Act, administer oaths.

(3) The provisions in this or any other Act, referring to the trustee in a bankruptcy shall, unless the context requires otherwise, or the Act provides otherwise, include the official receiver when acting as trustee.

(4) The trustee shall supply the official receiver with the information, and give him access to and facilities for inspecting the bankrupt's books and documents, and generally shall give him aid, as may be requisite for enabling the official receiver to perform his duties under this Act.

Duties of official receiver as regards debtor's conduct

76. As regards the debtor, it shall be the duty of the official receiver to—

- (a) investigate the conduct of the debtor and to report the court, stating whether there is reason to believe that, the debtor has committed any act which constitutes an offence under this Act, or any enactment repealed by this Act, or which would justify the court in refusing, suspending or qualifying an order for his discharge;

- (b) make other reports concerning the conduct of the debtor as the court may direct;
- (c) take part as he may deem fit in the public examination of the debtor; and
- (d) take part and give assistance in relation to the prosecution of any fraudulent debtor as the Attorney General may direct.

Duties of official receiver as to debtor's estate

77.-(1) As regards the estate of a debtor, it shall be the duty of the official receiver-

- (a) pending the appointment of a trustee, to act as interim receiver of the debtor's estate, and, where a special manager is not appointed, as manager thereof;
- (b) to authorise the special manager to raise money or make advances for the purposes of the estate in any case where, in the interests of the creditors it appears necessary so to do;
- (c) to summon and preside at the first meeting of creditors;
- (d) to issue forms of proxy for use at the meetings of creditors;
- (e) report to the creditors as to any proposal which the debtor may have made with respect to the mode of liquidating his affairs;
- (f) to advertise the receiving order, the date of the creditors' first meeting, and of the debtor's public examination, and other matters as it may be necessary to advertise; and
- (g) to act as trustee during any vacancy in the office of trustee.

(2) For the purpose of his duties as interim receiver or manager, the official receiver shall have the same powers as if he were a receiver and manager appointed by the court, but shall, as far as practicable, consult the wishes of the creditors with respect to the management of the debtor's property, and may for that purpose, where he thinks it advisable, summon meetings of the persons claiming to be creditors, and shall not,

unless the court otherwise orders, incur any expense beyond as is requisite for the protection of the debtor's property or the disposing of perishable goods:

Provided that, when the debtor cannot himself prepare a proper statement of affairs, the official receiver may, subject to any prescribed conditions, and at the expense of the estate, employ some person or persons to assist in the preparation of the statement of affairs.

PART V TRUSTEES IN BANKRUPTCY

(a) Official Name

Official name of
trustee

78. The official name of a trustee in bankruptcy shall be “the trustee of the property of a bankrupt” (insert the name of the bankrupt), and by that name the trustee may, in any part of United Republic or elsewhere, hold property of every description, make contracts, sue and be sued, enter into any engagements binding on himself, and his successors in office and do other acts necessary or expedient to be done in the execution of his office.

(b) Appointment

Power to appoint joint or successive trustees

79.—(1) The creditors may, where they think fit, appoint more persons than one to the office of trustee, and when more persons than one are appointed, they shall declare whether any act required or authorised to be done by the trustee is to be done by all or any one or more of the persons, but the persons are in this Act included under the term “trustee”, and shall be joint tenants of the property of the bankrupt.

(2) The creditors may also appoint persons to act as trustees in succession in the event of one or more of the persons first named declining to accept the office of trustee, or failing to give security, or the appointment of any person not being certified by the court.

Proceedings in case of vacancy in office of trustee

80.—(1) Where a vacancy occurs in the office of a trustee, the creditors in general meeting may appoint a person to fill the vacancy, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be taken as in the case of a first appointment.

(2) The official receiver shall, on the requisition of any creditor, summon a meeting for the purpose of filling any vacancy.

(3) Where the creditors do not, within three weeks after the occurrence of a vacancy, appoint a person to fill the vacancy, the official receiver shall report the matter to the court, and the court may appoint a trustee; but in the case the creditors or committee of inspection shall have the same power of appointing a trustee in the place of the person appointed by the court as in the case of a first appointment.

(4) During any vacancy in the office of trustee, the official receiver shall act as trustee.

(c) Control Over Trustee

Discretionary
powers of trustee and control thereof

81.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the trustee shall, in the administration of the property of the bankrupt and in the distribution thereof amongst his creditors, have regard to any directions that may be given by resolution of the creditors at any general meeting or by the committee of inspection, and any directions given by the creditors at any general meeting shall, in case of conflict, be deemed to override any directions given by the committee of inspection.

(2) The trustee may summon general meetings of the creditors for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and be his duty to summon meetings at the times as the creditors, by resolution either at the meeting appointing the trustee or otherwise may direct, and be lawful for any creditor, with the concurrence of one-sixth in value of the creditors (including himself), at any time to request the trustee or official receiver to call a meeting of the creditors, and the trustee or official receiver shall call the meeting accordingly within fourteen days:

Provided that, the person at whose instance the meeting is summoned shall deposit with the trustee or the official receiver, as the case may be, a sum sufficient to pay the costs of summoning the meeting, the sum to be repaid to him out of the estate if the creditors or the court direct.

(3) The trustee may apply to the court in the manner prescribed for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the bankruptcy.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the trustee shall use his own discretion in the management of the estate and its distribution among the creditors.

Appeal to court against trustee

82. Where the bankrupt or any of the creditors, or any other person, is aggrieved by any act or decision of the trustee, he may apply to the court, and the court may confirm, reverse, or modify the act or decision complained of, and make orders in the premises as it thinks just.

Control of official

83.—(1) The official receiver shall take cognizance of the conduct of trustees, and, in the event of any trustee not faithfully performing his duties, and duly observing the requirements imposed on him by any Act, rules, or otherwise, with respect to the performance of his duties, or in the event of any complaint being made to the official receiver by any creditor in regard thereto, the official receiver shall inquire into the matter and take action thereon as may be deemed expedient.

(2) The official receiver may at any time require any trustee to answer any inquiry made by him in relation to any bankruptcy in which the trustee is engaged, and, where the official receiver thinks fit, he may apply to the court to examine on oath, the trustee or any other person concerning the bankruptcy.

(3) The official receiver may also direct a local investigation to be made of the books and vouchers of the trustee.

(d) Remuneration and Costs

Remuneration of
trustee

84.—(1) Where the creditors appoint any person to be trustee of a debtor's estate, his remuneration (if any) shall be fixed by an ordinary resolution of the creditors, or, where the creditors resolve, by the committee of inspection, and in the nature of a commission or percentage, of which one part shall be payable on the amount realised by the trustee, after deducting any sums paid to secured creditors out of the proceeds of their securities, and the other part on the amount distributed in dividend.

(2) Where one-fourth in number or value of the creditors dissent from the resolution, or the bankrupt satisfies the court that, the remuneration is unnecessarily large, the court shall fix the amount of the remuneration.

(3) The resolution shall express what expenses the remuneration is to cover, and a liability shall not attach to the bankrupt's estate, or to the creditors, in respect of any expenses which the remuneration is expressed to cover.

(4) Where a trustee acts without remuneration, he shall be allowed out of the bankrupt's estate the proper expenses incurred by him in or about the proceedings of the bankruptcy as the creditors may, with the sanction of the court, approve.

(5) A trustee shall not, under any circumstances whatever, make any arrangements for or accept from the bankrupt, or any advocate, auctioneer, or any other person that may be employed about a bankruptcy, any gift, remuneration, or pecuniary or other consideration or benefit whatever beyond the remuneration fixed by the creditors and payable out of the estate, nor shall he make any arrangement for giving up, or give up, any part of his remuneration, either as receiver, manager, or trustee, to the bankrupt or any advocate, or other person that may be employed about the bankruptcy.

Allowance and taxation of costs

85.—(1) Where a trustee or manager receives remuneration for his services, a payment shall not be allowed in his accounts in respect of the performance by any other person of the ordinary duties which are required by this Act or rules thereunder to be performed by himself.

(2) Where the trustee is an advocate, he may contract that, the remuneration for his services as trustee shall include professional services.

(3) All bills and charges of advocates, managers, accountants, auctioneers, brokers, and other persons, not being trustees shall be taxed by the prescribed officer, and a payments in respect thereof shall not be allowed in the trustee's accounts without proof of taxation having been made, and the taxing officer shall satisfy himself before passing the bills and charges that, the employment of the advocates and other persons, in respect of the particular matters out of which the charges arise, has been duly sanctioned, and the sanction shall be obtained before the employment, except in case of urgency, and in other cases it must be shown that no undue delay took place in obtaining the sanction.

(4) A person shall, on request by the trustee (which request the trustee shall make a sufficient time before declaring a dividend), deliver his bill of costs or charges to the proper officer for taxation, and, where he fails to do so within seven days after the receipt of the request, or further time as the court, on application may grant, the trustee shall declare and distribute the dividend without regard to any claim by him and thereupon any claim shall be forfeited as well against the trustee personally as against the estate.

(e) Receipts, Payments, Accounts and Audit

Trustee to furnish list of creditors

86. The trustee or official receiver shall, whenever required by any creditor so to do, furnish and transmit to him by post, a list of the creditors showing the amount of the debt due to each creditor, and be entitled to charge for the list, the sum of fifty cents per folio of one hundred words, together with the cost of the postage thereof.

Trustee to furnish statement of
accounts

87. It shall be lawful for any creditor, with the concurrence of one-sixth of the creditors (including himself), at any time to call upon the trustee or official receiver to furnish and transmit to the creditors, a statement of the accounts up to the date of the notice, and the trustee upon the receipt of the notice shall furnish and transmit statement of the accounts:

Provided that, the person at whose instance the accounts are furnished shall deposit with the trustee or official receiver, as the case may be, a sum sufficient to pay the costs of furnishing and transmitting the accounts, which sum shall be repaid to him out of the estate where the creditors or the court so direct.

Books to be kept by trustee

88. The trustee shall keep, in a manner prescribed, proper books in which he shall cause to be made entries or minutes of proceedings at meetings, and other matters as may be prescribed, and any creditor of the bankrupt may, subject to the control of court, personally or by his agent, inspect any books.

Annual statement of proceedings

89.—(1) A trustee in a bankruptcy shall as may be prescribed, and not less than once in every year during the continuance of the bankruptcy, transmit to the official receiver a statement showing the proceedings in the bankruptcy up to the date of the statement containing the prescribed particulars and made out in the prescribed form.

(2) The official receiver shall cause the statements transmitted to be examined, and call the trustee to account for any misfeasance, neglect, or omission, which may appear on the said statements or in his accounts or otherwise, and may require the trustee to make good any loss which the estate of the bankrupt may have sustained by the misfeasance, neglect, or omission.

Trustee not to pay into private account

90. A trustee in a bankruptcy or under any composition or scheme of arrangement shall not pay any sums received by him as trustee into his private banking account.

Payment of money into prescribed bank

91.—(1) A Bankruptcy Estates Account shall be kept by the official receiver with the prescribed bank, and the moneys received by him in respect of proceedings under this Act shall be paid to that account.

(2) A trustee in bankruptcy shall, in a manner and at the time as the official receiver shall direct, pay the money received by him to the Bankruptcy Estates Account at the prescribed bank, and the official receiver shall furnish him with a certificate of receipt of the money paid:

Provided that-

- (a) where it appears to the committee of inspection that, for the purpose of carrying on the debtor's business or of obtaining advances, or because of the probable amount of the cash balance, or where the committee shall satisfy the court that, for any other reason it is for the advantage of the creditors that, the trustee should have an account with the local bank, the court shall, on the application of the committee of inspection, authorise the trustee to make his payments into and out of local bank as the committee may select; and
- (b) in any bankruptcy composition or scheme or arrangement in which the official receiver is acting as trustee, or in which a trustee is acting without a committee of inspection, the court may, where for special reasons it thinks fit to do so, upon the application of the official receiver or other trustee, authorise the trustee to make his payments into and out of local bank as the court may direct.

(3) Where the trustee opens an account in a local bank, he shall open and keep it in the name of the debtor's estate, and any interest receivable in respect of the account shall be part of the assets of the estate, and the trustee shall make his payments into and out of the local bank in the prescribed manner.

(4) Subject to any general rules relating to small bankruptcies referred to in section 119, where the debtor at the date of the receiving an order has an account at a bank, the accounts shall not be withdrawn until the expiration of seven days from the day appointed for the first meeting of creditors, unless the court, for the safety of the account, or other sufficient cause, orders the withdrawal of the account.

(5) Where a trustee at any time retains for more than ten days, a sum exceeding one thousand shillings, or other amount as the court in any particular case authorises him to retain, then, unless he explains the retention to the satisfaction of the court, he shall pay interest on the amount retained in excess at the rate of twenty per centum per annum, and shall not have claim to remuneration, and may be removed from his office by the court, and shall be liable to pay any expenses occasioned by reason of his default.

Investment of surplus funds

92.—(1) Whenever the cash balance standing to the credit of the Bankruptcy Estates Account is in excess of the amount which in the opinion of the official receiver is required for the time being to answer demands in respect of bankrupts' estates, the official receiver may place the same or any part thereof on fixed deposit with the prescribed bank.

(2) Whenever any money placed on deposit is, in the opinion of the official receiver, required to answer any demands in respect of bankrupts' estates, the official receiver shall thereupon withdraw the money from fixed deposit and repay the same to the credit of the cash balance of the Bankruptcy Estates Account.

(3) The interest accruing from any money placed on deposit shall be paid by the official receiver to the credit of a separate account entitled the Bankruptcy Contingency Fund at the prescribed bank.

(4) Where it appears that, it is in the public interest to do so and other funds are not available or properly chargeable, the court may, on the application of the official receiver, authorise him to employ money in the Bankruptcy Contingency Fund to defray the cost in whole or in part of any of the following:

- (a) the prosecution of any debtor for any bankruptcy offences alleged to have been committed by him;
- (b) the institution of proceedings and the payment of expenses of witnesses (if any) for the discovery or recovery of property belonging to any debtor;
- (c) the institution of proceedings to set aside an alleged fraudulent preference;
- (d) the employment of counsel in matters connected with an estate which by reason of their difficulty or other good cause cannot be dealt with by the official receiver himself;

- (e) the employment of interpreters in cases where the court is unable to provide an interpreter;
- (f) the payment of expenses involved in arresting a debtor and bringing him before the court; or
- (g) any other expenditure which the court may deem fit.

(5) The court may, in its discretion, order that the fund be reimbursed in whole or in part in the event of any money being recovered as a result of the expenditure authorised.

Audit of trustee's
accounts

93.—(1) A trustee shall, at the time as may be prescribed, but not less than twice in each year during his tenure of office, send to the official receiver an account of his receipts and payments as trustee.

(2) The account shall be in a prescribed form, made in duplicate, and verified by a statutory declaration in the prescribed form.

(3) The official receiver shall cause the accounts sent to be audited, and, for the purposes of the audit, the trustee shall furnish the auditor with vouchers and information as the auditor may require, and the auditor may at any time require the production of and inspect any books or accounts kept by the trustee.

(4) When any account has been audited, one copy thereof shall be filed and kept by the official receiver, and the other copy filed with the court, and each copy shall be open to the inspection of any creditor, or of the bankrupt, or of any person interested.

(f) Vacation of Office by Trustee

Release of trustee

94.—(1) When the trustee has realised the property of the bankrupt, or so much thereof as can, in his opinion, be realised without needlessly protracting the trusteeship, and distributed a final dividend, if any, or has ceased to act by reason of a composition having been approved, or has resigned, or has been removed from his office, the court shall, on his application, cause a report on his accounts to be prepared, and, on his complying with the requirements of the court, take into consideration the report, and any objection which may be urged by any creditor or person interested against the release of the trustee, and either grant or withhold the release accordingly.

(2) Where the release of a trustee is withheld, the court may, on the application of any creditor or person interested, make order as it thinks just, charging the trustee with the consequences of any act or default he may have done or made contrary to his duty.

(3) An order of the court releasing the trustee shall discharge him from liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the administration of the affairs of the bankrupt, or otherwise in relation to his conduct as trustee, but any order may be revoked on proof that, it was obtained by fraud, suppression or concealment of any material fact.

(4) The foregoing provisions of this section shall apply to the official receiver when he is, or is acting as trustee, and when the official receiver has been released under this section, he shall continue to act as trustee for any subsequent purposes of the administration of the debtor's estate, but liability shall not attach to him personally by reason of his continuing in respect of any act done, default made, or liability incurred before his release.

(5) Where the trustee has not previously resigned or been removed, his release shall operate as a removal of him from his office and thereupon the official receiver shall be the trustee.

(6) Where, on the release of a trustee, the official receiver is, or is acting as trustee, liability shall not attach to him personally in respect of any act done or default made, or liability incurred by any prior trustee.

Office of trustee vacated by insolvency

95. Where a receiving order is made against a trustee, he shall thereby vacate his office of trustee.

Removal of
trustee

96.—(1) The creditors may, by ordinary resolution, at a meeting specially called for that purpose of which seven days' notice has been given, remove a trustee appointed by them, and may, at the same or any subsequent meeting, appoint another person to fill the vacancy as hereinafter provided in case of a vacancy in the office of trustee.

(2) Where the court is of opinion that-

- (a) a trustee appointed by the creditors is guilty of misconduct or fails to perform his duties under this Act;
- (b) his trusteeship is being needlessly protracted without any probable advantage to the creditors;
- (c) he is by reason of lunacy, or continued sickness or absence, incapable of performing his duties; or
- (d) his connection with or relation to the bankrupt or his estate, or any particular creditor, might make it difficult for him to act with impartiality in the interest of the creditors generally, or where, in any other matter he has been removed from office on the ground of misconduct, the court may remove him from his office.

PART VI

CONSTITUTION, PROCEDURE AND POWERS OF COURT

(a) Jurisdiction

Jurisdiction in
bankruptcy

97. The court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy shall be the High Court and the Chief Justice may by order delegate all or any part of the jurisdiction of the High Court in bankruptcy to any subordinate court, either generally or for the purpose of any particular case or class of cases.

Judge may exercise his powers in chambers

98. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and general rules, a judge of the court may exercise in chambers the whole or any part of his powers.

Official receiver to make payments in accordance with directions of court

99. Where any moneys or funds have been received by the official receiver under this Act and the court makes an order declaring that any person is entitled to the moneys or funds, the official receiver shall make payment accordingly to that person.

General powers of court

100.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the court shall have full power to decide questions of priorities, and other questions whatsoever, whether of law or fact, which may arise in any case of bankruptcy coming within its cognisance, or which the court may deem it expedient or unnecessary to decide for the purpose of doing complete justice or making a complete distribution of property in any case.

(2) Where default is made by a trustee, debtor, or other person, in obeying any order or direction given by the official receiver, the court may on the application of the official receiver order defaulting trustee, debtor, or person to comply with the order or directions given; and the court may also, if it thinks fit upon any application, make an immediate order for the committal of defaulting trustee, debtor or person:

Provided that, the power given by this subsection shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in substitution for any other right or remedy in respect of the default.

Disqualification of bankrupt

101.—(1) Where a debtor is adjudged bankrupt, he shall be disqualified for being—

- (a) appointed or acting as a justice of the peace; or
- (b) elected to, or holding or exercising the office of mayor or member of a local government authority, school committee or road board.

(2) Where a person is adjudged bankrupt whilst holding the office of justice of the peace, mayor, or member of a local government authority, school committee or road board his office shall thereupon become vacant.

(3) The disqualifications to which a bankrupt is subject under this section shall be removed and cease where—

- (a) the adjudication of bankruptcy against him is annulled;
- (b) a period of five years has elapsed from the date of his discharge; or
- (c) he obtains from the court his discharge with a certificate to the effect that, his bankruptcy was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part.

(4) The court may grant or withhold the certificate referred to subsection (3)(c) as it thinks fit, but any refusal of the certificate shall be subject to appeal.

(b) Judgment Debtors

Power to make receiving order in lieu of committal order
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 18

102. Where application is made by a judgment creditor to the court for the committal of a judgment debtor, the court may, where it thinks fit, decline to commit, and in lieu thereof, with the consent of the judgment creditor and on payment by him of the prescribed fee, make a receiving order against the debtor, and in that case the judgment debtor shall be deemed to have committed an act of bankruptcy at the time the order is made, and the provisions of this Act shall apply as if for references to the presentation of a petition by or against a person, there were substituted references to the making of the a receiving order.

(c) Appeals

Appeals in bankruptcy
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 17

103.—(1) The court may at any time review, rescind or vary any order made by it.

(2) Orders of the court in bankruptcy matters shall, at the instance of the person aggrieved, be subject to appeal but an appeal shall not be entertained except in conformity with general rules as may for the time being be in force in relation to the appeal.

(3) Where, by this Act, an appeal to the court is given against any decision of the official receiver, the appeal shall be brought within twenty-one days from the time when the decision appealed against is pronounced or made.

(d) Procedure

Discretionary
power of court

104.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and to general rules, the costs of and incidental to any proceeding in court under this Act shall be in the discretion of the court.

(2) The court may at any time adjourn any proceedings before it upon the terms, if any, as it may think fit to impose.

(3) The court may at any time amend any written process or proceeding under this Act, upon the terms, if any, as it may think fit to impose.

(4) Where by this Act, or by general rules, the time for doing any act is limited, the court may extend the time either before or after the expiration thereof upon the terms, if any, as it may think fit to impose.

(5) Subject to general rules, the court may in any matter, take the whole or any part of the evidence either viva voce, or by interrogatories; or upon affidavit, or, outside Tanzania, by commission.

Consolidation of petitions

105. Where two or more bankruptcy petitions are presented against the same debtor or against joint debtors, the court may consolidate the proceedings, or any of them, on the terms as the court thinks fit.

Power to change carriage of proceedings

106. Where the petitioner does not proceed with due diligence on his petition, the court may substitute as petitioner any other creditor to whom the debtor may be indebted in the amounts required by this Act in the case of the petitioning creditor.

Continuance of proceedings on death of debtor

107. Where a debtor by or against whom a bankruptcy petition has been presented dies, the proceedings in the matter shall, unless the court orders otherwise, be continued as if he were alive.

Power to stay proceedings

108. The court may at any time, for sufficient reason make an order staying the proceedings under a bankruptcy petition, either altogether or for a limited time, on the terms and subject to the conditions as the court may think just.

Power to present petition against one partner

109. A creditor whose debt is sufficient to entitle him to present a bankruptcy petition against the partners of a firm may present a petition against anyone or more partners of the firm without including the others.

Power to dismiss petition against some respondents only

110. Where there are more respondents than one to a petition, the court may dismiss the petition as to one or more of them, without prejudice to the effect of the petition as against the other or others of them.

Property of partners to be vested in same
trustee

111. Where a receiving order has been made on a bankruptcy petition by or against one member of a partnership, any other bankruptcy petition by or against a member of the same partnership shall be filed with the first mentioned petition, and, unless the court directs otherwise, the same trustee or receiver shall be appointed as may have been appointed in respect of the property of the first mentioned member of the partnership, and the court may give directions for consolidating the proceedings as it thinks just.

Actions by trustee and bankrupt's partners

112. Where a member of a partnership is adjudged bankrupt, the court may authorise the trustee to commence and prosecute any action in the names of the trustee and of the bankrupt's partner; and any release by partner of the debt or demand to which the action relates shall be void; but notice of the application for authority to commence the action shall be given to him, and he may show cause against it, and on his application the court may, if it thinks fit, direct that, he shall receive his proper share of the proceeds of the action, and where he does not claim any benefit therefrom, he shall be indemnified against costs in respect thereof as the court directs.

Actions on joint contracts

113. Where a bankrupt is a contractor in respect of any contract jointly with any person or persons, the person or persons may sue or be sued in respect of the contract without the joinder of the bankrupt.

Proceedings in partnership name

114. Two or more persons, being partners, or any person carrying on business under a partnership name, may take proceedings or be proceeded against under this Act in the name of the firm, but in the case the court may, on application by any person interested, order the names of the persons who are partners in the firm or the name of the person to be disclosed in a manner, and verified on oath or otherwise, as the court may direct.

Court to be auxiliary to other reciprocating
courts

115. The court of Tanzania and the officers thereof shall in matters of bankruptcy, act in aid of every reciprocating court elsewhere having jurisdiction in bankruptcy or insolvency, and an order of the court seeking aid, with a request to this court shall be deemed sufficient to enable this court to exercise, in regard to the matters directed by the order, jurisdiction as either the court which made the request, or this court could exercise in regard to similar matters within their respective jurisdiction, save that to enable the official receiver of the United Republic to act as the agent of an officer of a reciprocating court or to enable an officer of this court to seek the aid of an official receiver of a reciprocating court in the manner provided in Part IX of this Act, it shall not be necessary for this court or any reciprocating court to make any order or send any request under this section.

Commitment to prison

116. Where the court commits any person to prison, the commitment may be to convenient prison as the court thinks expedient, and, where the gaoler of any prison refuses to receive any prisoner committed, on conviction shall be liable for every refusal to a fine not exceeding two thousand shillings.

PART VII SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

(a) Application of the Act

Married women
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 19

117.—(1) A married woman shall be subject to the bankruptcy laws as if she were femme sole.

(2) Where a final judgment or order for any amount has been obtained against a married woman, whether or not expressed to be payable out of her separate property, that judgment or order shall be available for bankruptcy proceedings against her by a bankruptcy notice as though she were personally bound to pay the judgment debt or sum ordered to be paid.

Exclusion of companies
Cap. 212

118. A receiving order shall not be made against any corporation or against any association or company registered under the Companies Act.

Application of Act in case of small estates
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 20
20 of 1958 s. 18

119. Where a petition is presented by or against a debtor, and the court is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise, or the official receiver reports to the court that, the property of the debtor is not likely to exceed in value twelve thousand shillings, the court may make an order that, the debtor's estate be administered in a summary of manner, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the following modifications-

- (a) where the debtor is adjudged bankrupt the official receiver shall be the trustee in the bankruptcy;
- (b) there shall be no committee of inspection, but the official receiver may do things which may be done by the trustee with the permission of the committee of inspection; and
- (c) other modifications may be made in the provisions of this Act as may be prescribed by general rules with the view of saving expense and simplifying procedure, but this section shall not permit the modification of the provisions of this Act relating to the examination or discharge of the debtor:

Provided that, the creditors may at any time, by special resolution, resolve that, some person other than the official receiver be appointed trustee in the bankruptcy, and thereupon the bankruptcy shall proceed as if an order for summary administration had not been made.

Administration in bankruptcy of estate of person dying insolvent
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 21
20 of 1958 ss. 10
and 19

120.-(1) A creditor of a deceased debtor whose debt would have been sufficient to support a bankruptcy petition against the debtor, had he been alive, may present to the court a petition in the prescribed form praying for an order for the administration of the estate of the deceased debtor, according to the law of bankruptcy.

(2) Upon the prescribed notice being given to the legal personal representative of the deceased debtor, the court may, in the prescribed manner, upon proof of the petitioner's debt, unless the court is satisfied that, there is a reasonable probability that the estate will be sufficient for the payment of the debts owing by the deceased, make an order for the administration in bankruptcy of the deceased debtor's estate, or may, upon cause shown, dismiss the petition with or without costs.

(3) Upon an order being made for the administration of a deceased debtor's estate, the property of the debtor shall vest in the official receiver, as trustee thereof, and he shall forthwith proceed to realise and distribute it in accordance with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that, creditors shall have-

- (a) the same powers as to appointment of trustees and committees of inspection as they have in other cases, where the estate of a debtor is being administered or dealt with in bankruptcy, and the provisions of this Act relating to trustees and committees of inspection shall apply to trustees and committees of inspection appointed under the power conferred; and
- (b) where a trustee other than the official receiver is appointed and a committee of inspection is not appointed, any act or thing or any direction or permission which might have been done or given by a committee of inspection may be done or given by the court.

(4) The provisions of Part III and IX of this Act and of sections 28, 85, 94(4) and 119 shall, so far as the same are applicable, apply to the administration under the provisions of this section of the estate of a deceased debtor in like manner as they apply in the case of a bankruptcy and in their application to the administration of the estate of a deceased debtor those provisions shall be read as if-

- (a) for references to the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, there were substituted references to the presentation of the petition for an order of administration;

- (b) for references to the date of the making of the receiving order, there were substituted references to the date of death;
- (c) for references to becoming bankrupt and to the bankrupt, there were substituted references to dying insolvent and the deceased debtor;
- (d) for references to a person being adjudged bankrupt and the making of an order of adjudication, there were substituted references to the making of an order of administration;
- (e) for references to the bankruptcy, there were substituted references to the administration;
- (f) references to committing an act of bankruptcy included references to dying insolvent; and
- (g) there were added to the list of debts which under the provisions of section 38 are to be paid in priority to other debts, death-bed charges including fees for medical attendance on the deceased debtor, and charges for the board and lodging of the deceased debtor for one month prior to his death.

(5) In the administration of the property of the deceased debtor under an order of administration, the official receiver or trustee shall have regard to any claim by the legal personal representative of the deceased debtor to payment of the proper funeral and testamentary expenses incurred by him in and about the debtor's estate, and the claims shall be deemed a preferential debt under the order, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the provisions of this Act relating to the priority of other debts, shall be payable in full, out of the debtor's estate, in priority to other debts.

(6) Where, on the administration of a deceased debtor's estate, any surplus remains in the hands of the official receiver or trustee after payment in full of the debts due from the debtor together with the costs of the administration and interest as provided by this Act in case of bankruptcy, the surplus shall be paid over to the legal personal representative of the deceased debtor's estate, or dealt with in other manner as may be prescribed.

(7) Notice to the legal personal representative of a deceased debtor of the presentation by a creditor of a petition under this section shall, in the event of an order for administration being made thereon, be deemed to be equivalent to notice of an act of bankruptcy, and after that notice, a payment or transfer of property made by the legal personal representative shall not operate as a discharge to him as between himself and the official receiver or trustee; save as aforesaid this section shall not invalidate any payment made or any act or thing done in good faith by the legal personal representative before the date of the order for administration.

(8) A petition for the administration of the estate of a deceased debtor under this section may be presented by the legal personal representative of the debtor, and, where a petition is presented by a representative, this section shall apply subject to modifications as may be prescribed by general rules made under subsection (10) of this section.

(9) Unless the context requires otherwise, “creditor” means one or more creditors qualified to present a bankruptcy petition as in this Act provided, and of the expressions “property of the deceased debtor” and “estate of the deceased debtor” shall be deemed to include any property which would have been divisible amongst the creditors had a bankruptcy petition been presented against the deceased debtor immediately before his death and the proceedings had been continued as if he were alive.

(10) General rules for carrying into effect the provisions of this section may be made in the same manner and to the like effect and extent as in bankruptcy.

Bankrupt guilty of gambling, etc.

140.—(1) A person who has been adjudged bankrupt, or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made, commits an offence, where, having engaged in any trade or business, and having outstanding at the date of the receiving order any debts contracted in the course and for the purposes of trade or business—

- (a) he has, within two years prior to the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, materially contributed to or

- increased the extent of his insolvency by gambling or by rash and hazardous speculations, and the gambling or speculations are unconnected with his trade or business;
- (b) he has, between the date of the presentation of the petition and the date of the receiving order, lost any part of his estate by gambling or rash and hazardous speculation as aforesaid; or
 - (c) on being required by the official receiver at any time, or in the course of his public examination by the court, to account for the loss of any substantial part of his estate incurred within a period of a year next preceding the date of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, or between that date and the date of the receiving order, he fails to give a satisfactory explanation of a manner in which the loss was incurred;

Provided that, in determining for the purposes of this section whether any speculations were rash and hazardous, the financial position of the accused person at the time when he entered into the speculations shall be taken into consideration.

(2) A prosecution shall not be instituted against any person under this section except by order of the court.

Bankrupt failing to keep proper accounts
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 24

141.—(1) A person who has been adjudged bankrupt or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made commits an offence, where, having been engaged in any trade or business during any period in the three years immediately preceding the date of the presentation of the bankruptcy petition, he has not kept proper books of account throughout that period and throughout any further period in which he was engaged between the date of the presentation of the petition and the date of the receiving order, or has not preserved books of account kept:

Provided that, a person who has not kept or has not preserved books of account shall not be convicted of an offence under this section where—

- (a) his unsecured liabilities at the date of the receiving order did not exceed, in the case of a person who has not on any previous occasion been adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or made a composition or arrangement with his creditors in Tanzania or any reciprocating territory, five thousand shillings, or in any other case one thousand shillings; or

- (b) he proves that, in the circumstances in which he traded or carried on business the omission was honest and excusable.

(2) A prosecution shall not be instituted against any person under this section except by order of the court.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed not to have kept proper books of account where he has not kept books or accounts as are necessary to exhibit or explain his transactions and financial position in his trade or business, including a book or books containing entries from day to day in sufficient detail of cash received and cash paid, and, where the trade or business has involved dealings in goods, statements of annual stock takings, and (except in the case of goods sold by way of retail trade to the actual consumer) accounts of goods sold and purchased showing the buyers and sellers thereof in sufficient detail to enable the goods and the buyers and sellers thereof to be identified.

Bankrupt
absconding
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 21

142. Where a person who is adjudged bankrupt, or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made, after the presentation of a bankruptcy petition by or against him, or within six months before the presentation, quits Tanzania, or attempts to make preparation to quit Tanzania, (unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud) commits an offence.

False claim, etc.
Ord. No.
45 of 1947 s. 26

143. Where a creditor, or a person claiming to be a creditor in any bankruptcy proceedings, makes any false claim, or any proof, declaration or statement of account, which is untrue in any material particular commits an offence, unless he proves that he had no intent to defraud.

Order by court for prosecution on report of trustee

144. Where an official receiver or trustee in a bankruptcy reports to the court that, in his opinion a debtor who has been adjudged bankrupt or in respect of whose estate a receiving order has been made has committed an offence under this Act, or where the court is satisfied upon the presentation of any creditor or member of the committee of inspection that, there is ground to believe that the debtor has committed any such offence, the court shall, where it appears to it that, there is a reasonable probability that the debtor will be convicted, and the circumstances render a prosecution desirable, order that the debtor be prosecuted for the offence.

Criminal liability after discharge or composition

145. Where a debtor has committed any criminal offence, he shall not be exempted from being proceeded against therefor by reason that, he has obtained his discharge or a composition or scheme of arrangement has been accepted or approved.

General penalty
Ords. Nos.
45 of 1947 s. 26
39 of 1960

146. A person who commits an offence under this Act, where a specific penalty is not provided on conviction shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

Form of charge

147. In a charge for an offence under this Act, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged in the words of this Act specifying the offence, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, without alleging or setting forth any debt, act of bankruptcy, trading adjudication, or any proceedings in or order, warrant or document of the court acting under this Act.

Director of Public Prosecutions to act in certain cases
Act No.
1 of 2008 s. 32

148. Where the court orders the prosecution of any person for any offence under this Act or for any offence arising out of or connected with any bankruptcy proceedings, it shall be the duty of the Director of Public Prosecutions to institute and carry on the prosecution:

Provided that, where the order of the court is made on the application of the official receiver and based on his report, the official receiver may institute the prosecution and carry on the proceedings, if or so long as those proceedings are conducted before a subordinate court, unless in the court thereof circumstances arise which render it desirable that the remainder of the proceedings should be carried on by the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Evidence as to frauds by agents

149. A statement or admission made by a person in any compulsory examination or deposition before the court on the hearing of any matter in bankruptcy shall not be admissible as evidence against that person in any proceeding in respect of any offence relating to frauds by agents, bankers or factors.

PART IX

PROVISION FOR RECIPROCITY WITH OTHER COUNTRIES

Declaration of reciprocating countries and courts
GN. No.
478 of 1962

150. Where the Minister responsible for legal affairs is satisfied that, the legislature of any country has enacted provisions for reciprocity in bankruptcy which in that country have the like effect as the provisions contained in this Part of this Act, the Minister may by order declare that country to be a reciprocating country and the court thereof having jurisdiction in bankruptcy, a reciprocating court for the purposes of this Act, and as from the date of publication of the order in the Gazette, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply to bankruptcy proceedings subsequently instituted in the declared country against a debtor having property in Tanzania.

Local effect of receiving order, etc., made by reciprocating court against debtor having property in Tanzania

151. Where a receiving order or order of adjudication or any appointment of a special manager or interim receiver has been made in any reciprocating country in bankruptcy proceedings against a bankruptcy having property in Tanzania, the order or appointment shall, subject to the other provisions of this Part of this Act, have the like effect as if it had been made in bankruptcy proceedings against the debtor in Tanzania, and the debtor and his creditors shall be deemed to be in the same position and have the same rights and privileges, and be subject to the same disqualifications, restrictions, obligations and liabilities in respect as if the order or appointment had been made under this Act.

Vesting of bankrupt's local property in trustee appointed in reciprocating country

152. Where an order of adjudication is made by a reciprocating court, the property of the bankrupt situated in Tanzania shall, by virtue of the order, vest in the person discharging the office of trustee of the property of the bankrupt in the reciprocating country, in the same manner as if the order of adjudication and the appointment of trustee had been made in Tanzania, and the superintendence of the trustee shall continue to be exercised by the committee of inspection appointed in the reciprocating country or where there be no committee, by the reciprocating court.

Local powers of official receiver, etc., appointed in reciprocating country

153. The official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee of a reciprocating country officiating in bankruptcy proceedings against a debtor having property in Tanzania shall, subject to the control of the court by which he is appointed, be solely responsible for conducting those proceedings, and managing the affairs of the debtor or bankrupt within Tanzania, and for that purposes shall, in his respective capacity, have the same powers, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities as if he had derived his authority under this Act and in any proceedings where by this Act, a debtor, creditor or other person interested is required to do any act at the direction of an official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee, or is permitted by this Act to move in any matter in connection with the proceedings, every debtor, creditor or person interested shall do the act at the direction of, and in the matter treat and negotiate with or proceed against the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee as the case may be of the reciprocating country, except in so far as any official may have delegated his authority to the official receiver of the United Republic as his agent in the manner hereinafter provided.

Local official receiver to act as agent of official receiver etc., of reciprocating country

154. An official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee of a reciprocating country officiating in bankruptcy proceedings against a debtor having property in the United Republic may require the official receiver of the United Republic to act as his agent either in regard to any specific matter, or generally to take steps as may be lawful under this Act for the discovery, seizure, protection, disclaimer or realisation of any property of the bankrupt situated within the United Republic, and in that event it shall be the duty of the official receiver of the United Republic to act accordingly.

Mode of requesting official receiver to act as agent
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 22

155.—(1) The request to act as agent as aforesaid shall be made in the manner prescribed under this Act, and be published as a notice in the Gazette, and as from the date of the request and without further formality or authority, the official receiver shall, as regards the debtor or bankrupt and his property and creditors situated in the United Republic and for the purposes for which he is authorised, have the same rights, powers and duties as are conferred under the provisions of this Act upon an official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee as the case may be:

Provided that, nothing herein contained shall be taken to confer on the official receiver any interest or title in any property otherwise than as an agent as aforesaid.

(2) On the receipt of the prescribed request, the official receiver shall file with the registrar of the High Court, the original or a properly authenticated copy of the request, and upon filing, the court shall take judicial notice of the appointment as agent under the provisions of this Part.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the official receiver may in any case, in which it is made to appear to him that, immediate action is desirable, commence discharging his duties as agent as aforesaid in any manner applicable to the circumstances, where upon receipt of telegraphic or other information he is satisfied that—

- (a) bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in a reciprocating country against a debtor having property in the United Republic;

(b) the prescribed request for him to act has been signed and dispatched; and

(c) he has been indemnified against costs, charges and expenses to be incurred by him.

(4) Unless the contrary intention appears, the request to act as agent sent to the official receiver of the United Republic shall be deemed to permit him to delegate at his discretion, the powers and duties vested in him as agent to any deputy official receiver appointed in pursuance of this Act.

Duties of official receiver acting as agent

156. It shall be the duty of the official receiver of the United Republic to remit the proceeds of the realisation of the property of the bankrupt and other money of the estate coming into his hands as the agent as aforesaid, to the person for whom he is acting, after deducting the expenses as may have been properly incurred by him; and the distribution among the creditors of the money shall be carried out in accordance with the law of the reciprocating territory in which the adjudication order was made.

Transmission of proofs of local debts

157. Where a receiving order or an order of adjudication has been made in a reciprocating country and the official receiver of the United Republic is acting as agent in the manner hereinbefore provided, proofs of debts contracted by the debtor in the United Republic may be filed with the local official receiver in the form prescribed by the law of the reciprocating country, and in that case it shall be his duty to receive, deal with and forward in the manner prescribed by the rules made under this Part of this Act the proofs to the official receiver or trustee, as the case may be, of the reciprocating country.

Power of local court to make orders

158. Where on the application of the official receiver or any creditor or other person interested, it appears to the court that, bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in a reciprocating court against a debtor having property situated in the United Republic, the court may, notwithstanding that, proceedings have not been instituted in the United Republic exercise as regards the person, property and affairs of the debtor, the powers conferred by sections 11 and 26 of this Act as may in the circumstances be applicable.

Limitation on powers of local court to entertain proceedings

159. An order, warrant or search made or issued by a reciprocating court shall be enforced by the court in Tanzania in the same manner in respects as if the order, warrant or search warrant had been made or issued by itself.

Local enforcements of warrants of reciprocating court

160. Subject to the other provisions of this section, a reciprocating court shall have sole jurisdiction in matters in or of arising out of any bankruptcy proceedings taken before the court against a debtor having property in the United Republic, and a court in Tanzania shall not entertain any suit, application or other matter arising in or out of proceedings except-

- (a) upon the institution of any proceedings by or against the local official receiver in respect of any matters within the scope of his authority in the capacity of agent as aforesaid;
- (b) in the case of any civil suit or proceedings within the ordinary civil jurisdiction of the court by or against the official receiver, interim receiver, trustee of special manager of or appointed in a reciprocating country;
- (c) upon the institution of any proceedings affecting the property of the debtor or bankrupt situated in the United Republic;
- (d) upon the receipt of a request to act in aid of or be auxiliary to the reciprocating court;
- (e) for the public examination of the debtor in regard only to his property situated within the United Republic or his dealings with any person ordinarily resident or carrying on business in Tanzania:

Provided that, the public examination shall not be held until the public examination before the reciprocating court have been concluded or adjourned sine die;

- (f) for the exercise of powers under Part VIII of this Act in relation to bankruptcy offences alleged to have been committed within Tanzania;

- (g) upon the institution of any proceedings for or arising out of the enforcement or execution of any order, warrant or search warrant made or issued by a reciprocating court; or
- (h) upon an application for the exercise of the powers conferred on the court by sections 11, 26, 27 and 55.

Concurrent
bankruptcies
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 23

161.—(1) For the purposes of this section “concurrent bankruptcy proceedings” means bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings instituted concurrently against the same debtor in any two or more reciprocating countries, one of which may or may not be Tanzania.

(2) Where concurrent bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted affecting property in the United Republic, the property shall vest in the trustee appointed in the country where the order of adjudication first is made; but where two or more of the orders bear the same date or where for any reason no adjudication order is made, then the property shall vest in or be administered by the trustee or receiver of the territory where the receiving order is first made.

(3) In any case where concurrent bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in Tanzania and in pursuance of subsection (2) and (4) hereof, the property of the debtor or bankrupt situated in the United Republic vests in or is administered by a trustee or receiver in a reciprocating country, the court shall rescind its receiving order and annul its order of adjudication, if made, or dismiss the petition upon the terms, if any, as the court may think fit, and the rescission of a receiving order or an annulment of adjudication under this subsection shall not invalidate any acts lawfully done by the receiver or trustee of the United Republic or any other person lawfully acting under the authority of either of them.

(4) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, in any case where concurrent bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted in Tanzania, the court may, after the inquiry and reference to the reciprocating courts as it deems fit, order that the property of the debtor situated in the United Republic shall vest in or be administered by a trustee or receiver in the United Republic in some reciprocating country other than that determined under the provisions of subsection (2) hereof where, upon an application by the official receiver or any creditor or other person interested, it appears that, a majority of the creditors in number and value are resident in the United Republic or other reciprocating country, and that from the situation of the property of the debtor or bankrupt or other causes, his estate and effects may be more conveniently administered, managed and distributed in Tanzania or other reciprocating country.

Power of official receiver, etc., of Tanzania to require official receiver in reciprocating country to act as his agent
Ord. No. 20 of 1958 s. 24

162.—(1) Where a receiving order or an order of adjudication is made in Tanzania against a debtor or bankrupt having property situated in a reciprocating country and where under the provisions of this Act, the property of the debtor or bankrupt is administered by or vested in the official receiver or a trustee of or appointed in Tanzania, it shall be the duty of the official receiver or trustee and any interim receiver or special manager appointed in pursuance of this Act to take steps as may be lawful in any reciprocating territory for the proper administration of any property of the debtor or bankrupt situated in the territory and at his discretion and without further authority to request in the prescribed manner any bankruptcy official in the country empowered in that behalf, to act as his agent either generally or for any specific purpose, and to give directions and publish notices and do things in the reciprocating country as may be lawful for the administration of the estate, and unless for any reason to the contrary intention is expressed, a request sent to a bankruptcy official in a reciprocating country requiring him to act as an agent as aforesaid shall contain a consent that, he may assign the powers and duties vested in him as agent to his deputy or any officer ordinarily authorised to act for him in the reciprocating country.

(2) Where in any proceedings mentioned in subsection (1), the official receiver, interim receiver, special manager or trustee shall have completed and dispatched to a reciprocating country, a request to a bankruptcy official therein to act as his agent as aforesaid and where the circumstances of the case require, he may request bankruptcy official by telegram or otherwise to act as his agent until the time as the prescribed request shall arrive in the ordinary course of post, and when making any request undertake to indemnify bankruptcy official against any costs, charges and expenses which the latter may incur in acting as agent as aforesaid.

Power to make special rules
under this Part GN. No.
478 of 1962

163.—(1) The Chief Justice may, with the approval of the Minister responsible for legal affairs, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect all or any of the objects of this part of this Act, and in addition and for the purpose, shall have power to make rules extending or varying the time limited under this Act or any rules made under section 121 thereof for the doing of any act or taking any proceeding, in so far as the limitation of time affects persons ordinarily resident or carrying on business in a reciprocating country, who are or may be interested in any bankruptcy proceedings in Tanzania against a debtor having property in the reciprocating country:

Provided that, the rules made under the powers conferred by this subsection shall not come into force until the Chief Justice shall, by notice in the Gazette, declare his satisfaction that, the rule making authorities in reciprocating countries have made rules having the like effect within their respective countries.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the court may in respect of any particular matter exercise its general powers of extension of time under section 104 (4) of this Act, in favour of a person ordinarily residing or carrying on business in a reciprocating country, who is interested in bankruptcy proceedings instituted in Tanzania against a debtor having property in the reciprocating country.

FIRST SCHEDULE

(Made under section 15)

MEETINGS OF CREDITORS

First meeting of creditors Ord. No. 20 of 1958 s. 25	1.—(1) The first meeting of creditors shall be summoned for a day not later than sixty days after the date of the receiving order, unless the court for any special reason deems it expedient that, the meeting be summoned for a later day. (2) The official receiver shall summon the meeting by giving not less than six clear days' notice of the time and place thereof in the Gazette. (3) The official receiver shall also, as soon as practicable, send to each creditor mentioned in the debtor's statement of affairs, a notice of the time and place of the first meeting of creditors, accompanied by a summary of the debtor's statement of affairs, including the cause of his failure, and any observation thereon, which the official receiver may think fit to make; but the proceedings at the first meeting shall not be invalidated by reason of any notice or summary not having been sent or received before the meeting. (4) The meeting shall be held at the place as is in the opinion of the official receiver most convenient for the majority of the creditors. (5) The official receiver or the trustee may at any time summon a meeting of creditors, and shall do so whenever directed by the court, or requested by a creditor in accordance with the provisions of this Act.
Subsequent meetings	2. Meetings subsequent to the first meeting shall be summoned by sending notice of the time and place thereof to each creditor at the address given in his proof or where he has not proved, at the address given in the debtor's statement of affairs, or at other address as may be known to the person summoning the meeting.
Chairman	3. The official receiver, or some person nominated by him, shall be the chairman at the first meeting and the chairman at subsequent meetings shall be a person as the meeting may by resolution appoint.
Voting	4.—(1) A person shall not be entitled to vote as a creditor at the first or any other meeting of creditors unless he has duly proved a debt provable in bankruptcy to be due to him from the debtor, and the proof has been duly lodged before the time appointed for the meeting. (2) A creditor shall not vote at any meeting in respect of any unliquidated or contingent debt, or any debt the value of which is not ascertained.

(3) For the purpose of voting, a secured creditor shall, unless he surrenders his security, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given, and the value at which he assesses it, and be entitled to vote only in respect of the balance (if any) due to him, after deducting the value of his security, and where he votes in respect of his whole debt, he shall be deemed to have surrendered his security unless the court on application is satisfied that, the omission to value his security has arisen from inadvertence.

(4) A creditor shall not vote in respect of any debt on or secured by a current bill of exchange or promissory note held by him, unless he is willing to treat the liability to him thereon of every person who is liable thereon antecedently to the debtor, and against whom a receiving order has not been made, as a security in his hands, and to estimate the value thereof, and for the purposes of voting, but not for the purposes of dividend, to deduct it from his proof.

Trustees may redeem security

5. It shall be competent to the trustee or to the official receiver, within twenty-eight days after a proof estimating the value of a security as aforesaid has been made use of in voting at any meeting, to require the creditor to give up the security for the benefit of the creditors generally on payment of the value estimated with an addition thereto of twenty per centum:

Provided that, where a creditor has put a value on a security, he may, at any time before he has been required to give up the security as aforesaid, correct the valuation by a new proof and deduct a new value from his debt, but in that case the addition of twenty per centum shall not be made where the trustee requires the security to be given up.

Firms

6. Where a receiving order is made against one partner of a firm, any creditor to whom that partner is indebted jointly with the other partners of the firm, or any of them, may prove his debt for the purpose of voting at any meeting of creditors, and be entitled to vote thereat.

Power of
chairman

7. The chairman of a meeting shall have power to admit or reject a proof for the purpose of voting, but his decision shall be subject to appeal to the court, and where he is in doubt, the proof of a creditor should be admitted or rejected, he shall mark the proof as objected to, and allow the creditor to vote, subject to the vote being declared invalid in the event of the objection being sustained.

Proxies

8.-(1) A creditor may vote either in person or by proxy.

(2) An instrument of proxy shall be in the prescribed form, and issued by the official receiver of the debtor's estate or by any deputy official receiver, or, after the appointment of a trustee, by the trustee, and every insertion therein shall be in the handwriting of the person giving the proxy, or of any manager or clerk, or other person in his regular employment or of any person authorised to administer oaths in the court.

(3) General and special forms of proxy shall be sent to the creditors, together with a notice summoning a meeting of creditors, and neither the name nor the description of the official receiver, or of any other person, shall be printed or inserted in the body of any instrument of proxy before it is so sent.

(4) A creditor may give a general proxy to his manager or clerk, or any other person in his regular employment, and in that case, the instrument of proxy shall state the relation in which the person to act thereunder stands to the creditor.

(5) A creditor may give a special proxy to any person to vote at any specified meeting or adjournment thereof on any of the following matters:

- (a) for or against any specific proposal for a composition or scheme of arrangement;
- (b) for or against the appointment of any specified person as trustee at a specified rate of remuneration, or as member of the committee of inspection, or for or against the continuance in office of any specified person as trustee or member of a committee of inspection; or
- (c) on questions relating to any matter other than those above referred to, arising at any specified meeting or adjournment thereof.

(6) A proxy shall not be used unless it is deposited with the official receiver or trustee before the meeting at which it is to be used.

(7) Where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that, any solicitation has been used by or on behalf of a trustee or receiver in obtaining proxies, or in procuring the trusteeship or receivership, except by the direction of a meeting of creditors, the court shall have power, where it thinks fit, to order that a remuneration shall not be allowed to the person by whom or on whose behalf the solicitation may have been exercised, notwithstanding any resolution of the committee of inspection or of the creditors to the contrary.

(8) A creditor may appoint the official receiver to act in manner prescribed as his general or special proxy.

Adjournment

9. The chairman of a meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place.

Quorum
Ord. No.
20 of 1958 s. 25

10.—(1) Except as provided in subrule (2), a meeting shall not be competent to act for any purpose, except the election of a chairman, the proving of debts, and the adjournment of the meeting, unless there are present, or represented thereat, at least three creditors, or the creditors of their number does not exceed three.

(2) Where within half-an-hour from the time appointed for the meeting, a quorum of creditors is not present or represented, the meeting may be adjourned to the other day as the chairman may appoint, being not less than three nor more than twenty one days later, or where the creditors present resolve, or if no resolution other than that electing a chairman is passed, the meeting shall be concluded.

Minutes

11. The chairman of the meeting shall cause minutes of the proceedings at the meeting to be drawn up and fairly entered in a book kept for that purpose, and the minutes shall be signed by him or by the chairman of the next ensuing meeting.

Proxy holders not to vote on certain resolutions

12.-(1) A person acting either under a general or special proxy shall not vote in favour of any resolution which would directly or indirectly place himself, his partner or employer in a position to receive any remuneration out of the estate of the debtor otherwise than as a creditor rateably with the other creditors of the debtor:

Provided that, where a person holds special proxies to vote for the appointment of himself as trustee, he may use the said proxies and vote accordingly.

(2) The vote of the trustee, or his partner, clerk, advocate, or advocate's clerk, either as creditor, or as proxy for a creditor shall not be reckoned in the majority required for passing any resolution affecting the remuneration or conduct of the trustee.

SECOND SCHEDULE

(Made under section 37)

PROOF OF DEBTS

(a) Proof in Ordinary Cases

Proof of debts in ordinary cases

1.-(1) A creditor shall prove his debt as soon as may be after the making of a receiving order.

(2) A debt may be proved by delivering or sending through the post in a prepaid letter to the official receiver, or, where a trustee has been appointed, to the trustee, an affidavit verifying the debt.

(3) The affidavit may be made by the creditor himself, or by some person authorised by or on behalf of the creditor, and if made by a person authorized, it shall state his authority and means of knowledge.

(4) The affidavit shall contain or refer to a statement of account showing the particulars of the debt, and specify the vouchers, where any, by which the same can be substantiated, and the official receiver or trustee may at any time call for the production of the vouchers.

(5) The affidavit shall state whether the creditor is or is not a secured creditor, and where it is found at any time that the affidavit made by or on behalf of a secured creditor has omitted to state that, he is a secured creditor, the secured creditor shall surrender his security to the official receiver or trustee for the general benefit of the creditors unless the court on application is satisfied that, the omission has arisen from inadvertence, and in that case the court may allow the affidavit to be amended upon the terms as to the repayment of any dividends or otherwise as the court may consider to be just.

(6) A creditor shall bear the cost of proving his debt, unless, the court otherwise specially orders.

Inspection of proof by creditors

2. A creditor who has lodged a proof shall be entitled to see and examine the proofs of other creditors before the first meeting and at reasonable times.

Deduction of trade discounts

3. A creditor proving his debt shall deduct therefrom trade discounts, but he shall not be compelled to deduct any discount, not exceeding five per centum on the net amount of his claim, which he may have agreed to allow for payment in cash.

(b) Proof by Secured Creditors

Proof by secured
creditors

4.-(1) Where a secured creditor realises his security, he may prove for the balance due to him, after deducting the net amount realised.

(2) Where a secured creditor surrenders his security to the official receiver or trustee for the general benefit of the creditors, he may prove for his whole debt.

Assessment of security

5. Where a secured creditor does not either realise or surrender his security, he shall, before ranking for dividend, state in his proof the particulars of his security, the date when it was given, and the value at which he assesses it, and shall be entitled to receive a dividend only in respect of the balance due to him after deducting the value so assessed.

Redemption of security

6.-(1) Where a security is valued, the trustee may at any time redeem it on payment to the creditor of the assessed value.

(2) Where the trustee is dissatisfied with the value at which a security is assessed, he may require that, the property comprised in any security valued be offered for sale at the times and on the terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the creditor and the trustee, or as, in default of the agreement, the court may direct, and where the sale be by public auction, the creditor, or the trustee on behalf of the estate may bid or purchase:

Provided that, the creditor may at any time, by notice in writing, require the trustee to trustee whether he will or will not exercise his power of redeeming the security or requiring it to be realised, and where the trustee does not within six months after receiving the notice, signify in writing to the creditor his election to exercise the power, he shall not be entitled to exercise it; and the equity of redemption, or any other interest in the property comprised in the security which is vested in the trustee, shall vest in the creditor and the amount of his debt shall be reduced by the amount at which the security has been valued.

Amendment of assessment

7.-(1) Where a creditor has valued his security, he may at any time amend the valuation and proof on showing to the satisfaction of the trustee, or the court that, the valuation and proof were made bona fide on a mistaken estimate or the security has diminished or increased in value since its previous valuation; but the amendment shall be made at the cost of the creditor, and upon the terms as the court shall order, unless the trustee allow the amendment without application to the court.

(2) Where a valuation has been amended in accordance with the foregoing rule, the creditor shall forthwith repay any surplus dividend which he may have received in excess of that to which he would have been entitled on the amended valuation, or, as the case may be, shall be entitled to be paid out of any money, for the time being available for dividend, any dividend or share of dividend, which he may have failed to receive by reason of the inaccuracy of the original valuation, before that money is made applicable to the payment of any future dividend, but shall not be entitled to disturb the distribution of any dividend declared before the date of the amendment.
