THE DEEDS OF ARRANGEMENT ACT

An Act to regulate deeds of arrangement.

[25th February, 1930]

Ords. Nos.	GN. No.
10 of 1930	478 of 1962
13 of 1954	[R.L. Cap. 26]
41 of 1958 <sup>1</sup>

PART I

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

- Short title      1. This Act may be cited as the Deeds of Arrangement Act.
- Interpretation      2.-(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires-Ord. No.      “creditors generally” includes creditors who may assent to, 41 of 1958 s. 2      or take the benefit of a deed of arrangement;
Cap. 25      “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;
“property” has the same meaning as in the Bankruptcy Act; “Registrar” means the Registrar appointed under the provisions of section 6 and includes an assistant registrar.
                    (2) For the purpose of determining the number of creditors for whose benefit a deed is made, two or more joint creditors shall be treated as a single creditor.
- Deeds of      3.-(1) A deed of arrangement to which this Act applies shall arrangement to      include any instrument of the classes hereinafter mentioned which Act applies      whether under seal or not-(a) made by, for or in respect of the affairs of a debtor for the benefit of his creditors generally;
                    (b) made by, for or in respect of the affairs of a debtor who was insolvent at the date of the execution of the instrument for the benefit of any three or more of his creditors, otherwise than in pursuance of the law for the time being in force relating to bankruptcy.

- (2) The classes of instrument hereinbefore referred to are-
- (a) an assignment of property;
  - (b) a deed of or agreement for a composition, and in cases where creditors of the debtor obtain any control over his property or business-
    - (i) a deed of inspectorships entered into for the purpose of carrying on or winding up a business;
    - (ii) a letter of licence authorising the debtor or any person to manage, carry on, realise or dispose of a business with a view to the payment of debts; and
    - (iii) an agreement or instrument entered into for the purpose of carrying on or winding up the debtor's business, or authorising the debtor or any person to manage, carry on, realise or dispose of the debtor's business with a view to the payment of his debts.

PART II

AVOIDANCE OF DEEDS OF ARRANGEMENT WHERE STATUTORY CONDITIONS NOT COMPLIED WITH

Avoidance of unregistered deeds of arrangement
Ord. No.
41 of 1958 s. 4

4. A deed of arrangement shall be void unless it is registered with the Registrar under this Act within seven clear days after the first execution thereof by the debtor or any creditor, or where it is first executed in any place out of the municipality of Dar es Salaam, then within seven days after the time at which it would, in the ordinary course of post, arrive in Dar es Salaam, where posted within one week after the first execution thereof, and unless it bears an ordinary and ad valorem stamp as is provided by this Act.

Avoidance deeds of arrangement unless assented to by majority of creditors

5.-(1) A deed of arrangement which either is expressed to be or is in fact for the benefit of a debtor's creditors generally, shall be void unless, before or within twenty-one days after the registration thereof, or within extended time as the High Court or the court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy in the district in which the debtor resided or carried on business at the date of the execution of the deed may allow, it has received the assent of a majority in number and value of the creditors of the debtor.

(2) The list of creditors annexed to the affidavit of the debtor filed on the registration of the deed of arrangement shall be prima facie evidence of the names of the creditors and the amounts of their claims.

(3) The assent of a creditor for purposes of subsection (1) shall be established by his executing, the deed of arrangement or sending to the trustee his assent in writing attested by a witness, but not otherwise.

(4) The trustee shall file with the Registrar at the time of the registration of a deed of arrangement or in the case of a deed of arrangement assented to after registration, within twenty-eight days after registration or within extended time as the High Court or the court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy in the district in which the debtor resided or carried on business at the date of the execution of the deed may allow, a statutory declaration by the trustee that, the requisite majority of the creditors of the debtor have assented to the deed of arrangement, which declaration shall, in favour of a purchaser for value, be conclusive evidence and in other cases, be prima facie evidence of the fact declared.

(5) In calculating a majority of creditors for the purpose of this section, a creditor holding security upon the property of the debtor shall be reckoned as a creditor in respect of the balance, if any, due to him after deducting the value of the security and creditors whose debts amount to sums not exceeding two hundred shillings shall be reckoned in the majority in value but not in the majority in number.

PART III

REGISTRATION OF DEEDS OF ARRANGEMENT

Appointment of Registrar
Ord. No.
41 of 1958 s. 5;
GN. No.
478 of 1962

Mode of registration
Ords. Nos.
13 of 1954 s. 2;
41 of 1958 s. 6

6. The Minister responsible for legal affairs shall appoint a Registrar to perform the duties and exercise the powers imposed and conferred by this Act, and may appoint a number of assistant registrars who shall be subject to the directions of the Registrar.

7. (1) The registration of a deed of arrangement under this Act shall be effected in the following manner:

(a) a true copy of the deed, and a Schedule or inventory thereto annexed, or therein referred to, shall be presented to and filed with the Registrar within the time laid down in section 4, together with an affidavit verifying the time of execution and containing a description of the residence and occupation of the debtor, and of the place or places where his business is carried on; and

(b) an affidavit by the debtor stating the total estimated amount of property and liabilities included under the deed, the total amount of the composition, if any, payable thereunder and the names and addresses of his creditors.

(2) A deed shall not be registered under this Act unless the original of deed duly stamped with the proper stamp duty and in addition to the duty a stamp denoting a duty computed at the rate of one shillings for every two thousand shillings or fraction of two thousand shillings of the amount of composition payable under the deed and is produced to the Registrar at the time of registration.

Form of Register

8. The Registrar shall keep a Register wherein shall be entered, as soon as conveniently may, after the presentation of a deed for registration, an abstract of the contents of deed of arrangement registered under this Act containing the following and any other prescribed particulars-

- (a) the date of the deed;
- (b) the name, address and description of the debtor, the place or places where his business was carried on at the date of the execution of the deed, the title of the firm or firms under which the debtor carried on business, and the name and address of the trustee, if any, under the deed;
- (c) a short statement of the nature and effect of the deed, and of the composition in the pound payable thereunder;
- (d) the date of registration;
- (e) the amount of property and liabilities included under the deed, estimated by the debtor.

Rectification of Register

9. The High Court upon being satisfied that the omission to Register a deed of arrangement within the time required by this Act or the omission or misstatement of the name, residence or description of any person was accidental or due to inadvertence, or to some cause beyond the control of the debtor and not imputable to any negligence on his part may, on the application of any party interested, and on terms and conditions as are just and expedient, extend the time for registration, or order the omission or misstatement to be supplied or rectified by the insertion in the Register of the true name, residence or description.

Time for registration

10. Where the time for registering a deed of arrangement expires on Sunday or other day on which the registration office is closed, the registration shall be valid where made on the next following day on which the office is open.

Inspection of Register and registered deeds

11. A person shall be entitled at reasonable times to search the Register on payment of one shilling, or other fee as may be prescribed in the regulations, to inspect, examine and make extracts from any registered deed of arrangement without being required to make a written application or to specify any particulars in reference thereto, for each deed of arrangement inspected:

Provided that, the extracts shall be limited to the dates of execution and registration, the names, addresses and descriptions of the debtor and the parties to the deed, a short statement of the nature and effect of the deed, and any other prescribed particulars.

PART IV

PROVISIONS AS TO TRUSTEES

Security by trustee
Ord. No.
41 of 1958 s. 8

12.—(1) The trustee under a deed of arrangement shall, within fourteen days from the date on which the statutory declaration certifying the assent of the creditors is filed, give security in the prescribed manner to the Judge or Registrar of the court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy in the district in which the debtor resided or carried on business at the date of the execution of the deed, in a sum equal to the estimated assets available for distribution amongst the unsecured creditors as shown by the affidavit filed on registration to administer the deed properly and account fully for the assets which come to his hands, unless a majority in number and value of the debtor's creditors, either by resolution passed at a meeting convened by notice to the creditors, or by writing addressed to the trustee, dispense with his giving the security:

Provided that, when a dispensation has been given, the trustee shall forthwith make and file with the Registrar a statutory declaration to that effect, in favour of a purchaser for value which shall be conclusive evidence, and, in other cases, be prima facie evidence of the facts declared.

(2) Where a trustee under a deed of arrangement fails to comply with the requirements of this section, the court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy in the district in which the debtor resided or carried on business at the date of the execution of the deed, on the application of any creditor and after hearing a person as it may think fit, may declare the deed of arrangement to be void or make an order appointing another trustee in the place of the trustee appointed by the deed of arrangement.

(3) A certificate that, the security required by this section has been given by a trustee, signed by the judge or the Registrar of the court to whom it was given and filed with the registrar, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

(4) The moneys received by a trustee under a deed of arrangement shall be banked by him to an account to be opened in the name of the debtor's estate.

(5) In calculating a majority of creditors for purposes of this section, a creditor holding security upon the property of the debtor shall be reckoned as a creditor in respect of the balance, if any, due to him after deducting the value of security, and creditors whose debts amount to sums not exceeding two hundred shillings shall be reckoned in the majority in value but not in the majority in number.

Penalty on trustee
acting when deed of arrangement
becomes void

13. Where a trustee acts under a deed of arrangement after-

- (a) it has to his knowledge become void by reason of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Act or any enactment repealed by this Act;
- (b) he has failed to give security within the time and in the manner provided for by this Act or any enactment repealed by this Act, on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred shillings for every day between the date on which the deed became void or the expiration of the time within which security should have been given, as the case may be, and the last day on which he is proved to have acted as trustee, unless he satisfies the court before which he is accused that, his contravention of the law was due to inadvertence, or his action has been confined to taking steps as were necessary for the protection of the estate.

Transmission
of accounts to official receiver

Cap. 25

Cap. 25

Transmission
of accounts to creditors

14.—(1) A trustee under a deed of arrangement shall, at the times as may be prescribed, transmit to the official receiver in bankruptcy for Tanzania or as he directs, an account of his receipts and payments as trustee, in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner.

(2) A trustee who fails to transmit the account commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred shillings for each day during which the default continues, and the High Court for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the last preceding subsection, shall exercise, on the application of the official receiver, the powers conferred on the court by section 100(2) of the Bankruptcy Act in cases of bankruptcy.

(3) The accounts transmitted to the official receiver in pursuance of this section shall be open to inspection by the debtor or any creditor or other person interested on payment of the prescribed fee, and copies of or extracts from the accounts shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be furnished to the debtor, the creditors or any other persons interested.

(4) In this section the expression “trustee” shall include a person appointed to distribute a composition or to act in any fiduciary capacity under any deed of arrangement, and the expression “prescribed” means prescribed by rules under the Bankruptcy Act.

15.—(1) A trustee under a deed of arrangement at the expiration of six months from the date of the registration of the deed, and thereafter at the expiration of a subsequent period of six months until the estate has been finally wound up shall send to each creditor who has assented to the deed a statement in the prescribed form of the trustee’s accounts and the proceedings under the deed down to the date of the statement, and in his affidavit verifying his accounts transmitted to the official receiver, state whether or not he has duly sent the statements, and the dates on which the statements were sent.

(2) Where a trustee fails to comply with the provisions of this section, the High Court may, for the purpose of enforcing those provisions, exercise on the application of the official receiver, the powers conferred on the court by section 100(2) of the Bankruptcy Act in cases of bankruptcy.

Cap. 25

Audit of accounts

Cap. 25

16.—(1) Where, in the course of administration of the estate of a debtor who has executed a deed of arrangement, or within twelve months from the date when the final accounts of the estate were rendered to the official receiver, an application in writing is made to the official receiver by a majority in number and value of the creditors who have assented to the deed for an official audit of the trustee's accounts, the official receiver may cause the trustee's accounts to be audited, and in that case, the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act relating to the institution and enforcement of an audit of the accounts of a trustee in bankruptcy (including the provisions as to fees) shall, with necessary modifications, apply to the audit of the trustee's accounts, and the official receiver shall have power on the audit to require production of a certificate for the taxed costs of any advocate whose costs have been paid or charged by the trustee, and disallow the whole of any part of any costs in respect of which no certificate is produced.

(2) The official receiver may determine how and what parties, the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the audit (including any prescribed fees chargeable in respect thereof) are to be borne, whether by the applicants or by the trustee or out of the estate, and before granting application for an audit, require the applicants to give security for the costs of the audit.

Payment of undistributed moneys into court

17. At any time after the expiration of two years from the date of the registration of a deed of arrangement, the court having jurisdiction in bankruptcy in the district in which the debtor resided or carried on business at the date of the execution of the deed on the application of the trustee or creditor, or on the application of the debtor may order that, moneys representing unclaimed dividends and undistributed funds in the hands of the trustee or under his control be paid into court or to the official receiver for the credit of the Bankruptcy Estates Accounts as the court shall deem fit.

Preferential payment to creditor offence

18. Where a trustee under a deed of arrangement pays to any creditor out of the debtor's property, a sum larger in proportion to the creditor's claim than that paid to other creditors entitled to the benefit of the deed commits an offence unless, the deed authorises him to do so, or the payments are either made to a creditor entitled to enforce his claim by distress or as would be lawful in a bankruptcy.

Power of High Court to appoint new trustee

19.-(1) The High Court may, whenever it is expedient to appoint a new trustee under a deed of arrangement and it is found inexpedient difficult or impracticable so to do without the assistance of the court, make an order for the appointment of new trustee.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the the foregoing provision, the court may make an order for the appointment of a new trustee in substitution for a trustee who is convicted of an offence or is a bankrupt.

(3) An order under this section, and any consequential vesting order or conveyance, shall not operate further or otherwise as a discharge to any former trustee than an appointment of a new trustee under any power for that purpose contained in any deed of arrangement would have operated.

Provisions for protection of trustees under void deeds

20.-(1) Where a deed of arrangement is void by reason that, the requisite majority of creditors have not assented thereto, or, in the case of a deed for the benefit of three or more creditors, by reason that, the debtor was insolvent at the time of the execution of the deed and the deed was not registered as required by this Act but is not void for any other reason, and a receiving order is made against the debtor upon a petition presented after the lapse of three months from the execution of the deed, the trustee under the deed shall not be liable to account to the trustee in the bankruptcy for any dealings with or payments made out of the debtor's property which would have been proper, where the deed had been valid if he proves that at the time of dealings or payments he did not know, and had no reason to suspect that the deed was void.

Cap. 25

(2) Where a receiving order is made against a debtor under section 102 of the Bankruptcy Act, this section shall apply if the receiving order was made after the lapse of three months from the execution of the deed.

Notice to creditors of avoidance of deed

21. When a deed of arrangement is avoided by virtue of this Act for any reason other than that of being for the benefit of creditors generally and it has not been registered within the time allowed for the purpose by this Act, the trustee, as soon as practicable after he has become aware that the deed is void shall, give notice in writing thereof to each creditor whose name and address he knows, and file a copy of the notice with the Registrar, and, where he fails so to do, commits an offence and on conviction shall be liable to a fine not exceeding four hundred shillings.

Payment of expenses incurred by trustees

22. Where a deed of arrangement is avoided by reason of the bankruptcy of the debtor, the expenses properly incurred by the trustees under the deed in the performance of any of the duties imposed on him under this Act, shall be allowed or paid to him by the trustee in the bankruptcy as a first charge on the estate.

Application of Part IV

23. The provisions of this Part of this Act, except of those provisions as -

- (a) related to the transmission of accounts to the official receiver of the debtor's estate for the United Republic;
- (b) provide for the protection of trustees under void deeds;
- (c) require a notice to be given to creditors of avoidance of deeds;
- (d) provide for the payment of expenses incurred by trustees, shall not apply to a deed of arrangement made for the benefit of any three or more of the debtor's creditors unless it is in fact for the benefit of the debtor's creditors generally.

PART V

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Courts in which applications for enforcement of trusts to be made

24. An application by the trustee under a deed of arrangement, which either is expressed to be or is in fact for the benefit of the debtor's creditors generally, or by the debtor or by any creditor entitled to the benefit of a deed of arrangement, the enforcement of the trusts or the determination of questions under it, shall be made to the High Court.

Relation to bankruptcy law

25. (1) Where the trustee under a deed of arrangement, which either is expressed to be or is in fact for the benefit of the debtor's creditors generally, serves in the prescribed manner on any creditor of the debtor a notice in writing of the execution of the deed and the filing of the statutory declaration certifying the creditors' assents with an intimation that, the creditor shall not after the expiration of one month from the service of the notice be entitled to present a bankruptcy petition against the debtor founded on the execution of the deed or any other act committed by him in the course or for the purpose of the proceedings preliminary to the execution of the deed as an act of bankruptcy, a creditor shall not, after the expiration of that period be entitled to present a bankruptcy petition against the debtor founded on the execution of the deed or any act committed by him as an act of bankruptcy, unless the deed becomes void.

(2) Where a deed of arrangement as aforesaid has become void by virtue of this Act or any enactment repealed by this Act, the fact that, a creditor has assented to the deed shall not disentitle him to present a bankruptcy petition founded on the execution of the deed of arrangement as an act of bankruptcy.

(3) Save as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, this Act shall not be construed as repealing or affect any provision of the law for the time being in force in relation to bankruptcy or give validity to any deed or instrument which by law is an act of bankruptcy or void or voidable.

- Office copies 26. Subject to the provisions of this Act, and to any rules made there under, a person shall be entitled to have an office copy of, or extract from any deed registered under this Act upon paying the prescribed fees and a copy or extract, in courts and before arbitrators or other persons, shall be admitted as prima facie evidence thereof, and the fact and date of registration as shown thereon.
- Fees 27. There shall be taken, in respect of the registration of deeds of arrangement, and any copies, extracts, or official searches made by the Registrar, fees as may be prescribed; and this Act shall not make it obligatory on the Registrar to do, or permit to be done, any act in respect of which fee is specified or prescribed, except on payment of a fee.
- Rules
GN. No.
478 of 1962 28. The Chief Justice with the concurrence of the Minister responsible for legal affairs may make general rules for carrying into effect the objects of this Act.
