- (a) prescribing enrolment fees and other charges; and
- (b) subject to regulations made under this Act, prescribing the terms and conditions of service, including the appointment, dismissal, salary and retirement benefits of the members of the staff of the Institute.

(2) The Council may, after consultation with the appropriate Examination Board, promulgate decrees relating generally to the academic management of the Institute and in particular to-

- (a) the qualifications necessary for entry to the Institute, the courses of instruction to be provided by the Institute, the duration and number of academic terms, and the award of diplomas, certificates and any other awards of the Institute;

(b) the grant of scholarships and studentships, and the revocation of any grant.

(3) The Council may promulgate decrees regulating discipline among the members of the staff of the Institute and the students.

(4) It shall not be necessary for the Council to publish in the Gazette any decree promulgated by it under this section:

Provided that, where any such decree is not so published, the Council shall, in manner which it determines, bring or cause it to be brought to the notice of any person who is or is likely to be affected by it.

PART III OFFICERS OF THE INSTITUTE

Principal and Deputy Principal

9.–(1) The Council shall, subject to the approval of the Minister, appoint a suitable person on such terms and conditions, to be the Principal of the Institute.

(2) The Principal shall be the Chief Administrative and Academic Officer of the Institute and shall be responsible to the Council for-

(a) the proper administration of the Institute in accordance with the policy laid down by the Council;

(b) the academic management of the Institute in accordance with the policy laid down by the Council;

(c) the proper enforcement of decrees and by-laws made by the Council.

(3) The Principal or in his absence the Deputy Principal shall be entitled to be present and to speak at any meeting of the Council but shall not be entitled to vote unless he is a member thereof.

(4) The functions of the Deputy Principal shall be generally to assist the Principal and in the event of the Principal being unable to perform his functions by reason of illness, infirmity, absence from the United Republic or otherwise, to act in the office of the Principal and perform the functions of that office.

Secretary 10.—(1) The Council may appoint a suitable person to be the Secretary of the Institute.

(2) The Secretary shall attend the meeting of the Council, but shall not, save where he is also a member of the Council, be entitled to participate in the deliberations of the Council.

Staff 11.—(1) The administrative staff and the academic members of the Institute shall, subject to the provisions of section 21, be appointed by the Council.

(2) The Council may, subject to any condition and restrictions which it may impose, delegate to any person or body of persons, the powers of appointment of any members of the administrative or the academic staff of the Institute.

PART IV FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Funds of Institute 12. The funds and resources of the Institute shall consist of—

- (a) any moneys which may be provided for purposes of the Institute by Parliament;
- (b) any funds or assets which may vest in or accrue to the Institute from other sources by way of fees, gifts, grants or otherwise;
- (c) any sums which the Council may, subject to the provisions of section 13, borrow for purposes of the Institute; and
- (d) any sums which may in any manner become payable to or vested in the Institute either under the provisions of this Act or incidental to the carrying out of its functions, or by way of fees, gifts, grants or otherwise.

Power to borrow 13.—(1) The Council may, with the prior approval of the Minister, borrow moneys for and on behalf of the Institute by way of loan or overdraft, and upon any security and any terms and conditions relating to the repayment of the principal and the payment of the interest which subject to any directions by the Minister, the Council may deem fit.

(2) A person lending money to the Institute shall not be bound to inquire whether the borrowing of that money by the Council has been approved by the Minister.

Annual and Supplementary budget

14.-(1) In this Act, “financial year” means period not exceeding twelve consecutive months designated in that behalf by the Council:

Provided that the first financial year after the commencement of this Act shall commence on the date of the commencement of this Act and may be of a longer or shorter period than twelve months.

(2) Not less than two months before the beginning of any financial year other than the first financial year, the Council shall at its meeting especially convened for that purpose, pass a detailed budget in this Act referred to as “the annual budget” of the amounts respectively-

- (a) expected to be received; and
- (b) expected to be disbursed, by the Institute during that financial year.

(3) Where in any financial year the Council requires to make any disbursement not provided for or of an amount in excess of the amount provided for, in the annual budget for that year, the Council shall, at a meeting pass a supplementary budget detailing that disbursement.

(4) The annual budget and every supplementary budget shall be in the form and include the details which the Minister may direct.

(5) The Council upon passing any annual budget or any supplementary budget, shall submit the same to the Minister for his approval.

(6) The Minister shall, upon receipt of the annual budget or any supplementary budget, approve or disapprove the same or may approve subject to any amendments which he may deem fit.

(7) Where the Minister has approved any annual budget or any supplementary budget, the budget or, as the case may be, the supplementary budget, as amended by him, shall be binding on the Council which, subject to the provisions of subsection (8), shall confine the disbursements within the items and the amounts contained in the budget or supplementary budget as approved by the Minister.

- (8) The Council may-
- (a) with the sanction in writing of the Minister make a disbursement notwithstanding that the disbursement is not provided for in any budget;
 - (b) from the amount of expenditure provided for in any budget in respect of any item, transfer, a sum not exceeding ten thousand shillings, to any other item contained in the budget;
 - (c) adjust expenditure limits to take account of circumstances not reasonably foreseeable at the time the budget was prepared, subject to submitting a supplementary budget to the Minister within two months of such alteration of expenditure limits becoming necessary.
